Welfare Society Fills Miss Shoemaker's Job

AREA WOMAN WILL ASSUME POST IN JUNE

Final Details Will Be Worked Out
Tonight

By FRED C. SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Pottstown's Family Welfare society will have a trained psychiatric social worker as its new executive secretary, it was announced yesterday.

She is Mrs. Clare Smith Burdan, wife of H. Henry Burdan, Ringing Hill, Pottstown RD 3. She now is supervisor of the social service department at Embreeville State hospital in Chester county.

She will succeed Martha B. Shoemaker, who has been executive secretary for the past 12 years. Miss Shoemaker, who is 72, announced her retirement the past February.

Mrs. Frank S. Anderson, chairman of the selection committee, who announced the appointment, said final details are to be worked out at a meeting tonight.

The appointment will not take effect until June, when Mrs. Burdan will be able to relinquish her duties at Embreeville. Miss Shoemaker has agreed to stay until then, although she had asked originally that her resignation take effect in April.

ATTENDING the meeting with Mrs. Burdan and Mrs. Anderson will be Mrs. Robert A. Ferre Jr. and Mrs. Jared Evans.

Mrs. Burdan, who has used her maiden name, Clare S. Smith, in her professional work, would be the Family Welfare society's first trained, professional social worker. Born and reared in the Pottstown area.

Jacobs' Officials, Union Exchange Contract Offers

Contract proposals yesterday were exchanged by representatives of Jacobs Local 3802, U.S.W.-CIO, and officials of the Jacobs Aircraft Engine company, Queen and Madison streets.

Union and company leaders reportedly were amiable at the brief negotiating session.

They will study proposals during the week and next Tuesday will meet in a day-long session to thrash over the proposed contracts.

Representing the union at the opening session were negotiating committee members Joseph Patisson, chairman; Francis Moyer, Arthur Hoffman, Robert Stahl, Bruce Gilbert, Lewis Keilman, Mark L. Brown, union president, and William Robbins, staff representative.

Present for the company were Kenneth Lane, director of personnel, and Charles Yeager, plant manager.

There was no discussion yesterday — only an exchange of prepared contract proposals.

Oil Burner Explodes, Frightens Residents

An exploding oil burner frightened residents of a three-story building at High and Charlotte streets last night.

The explosion occurred at 7:55 o'clock and smoke chased residents from their apartments. The building is located on the southeast corner of the intersection.

Good Will Firemen answered the call. They had to jimmy the cellar door to gain entrance. There was no damage and no injuries.

FIVE WELCOMED INTO DOEHLER 25-YEAR CLUB

Bartholomew Presents

35-YEAR-WORKERS
ALSO ARE HONORED

Amid an atmosphere of reminiscence, five new members last night were welcomed into the Doepler-Jarvis Quarter Century club.

The new members, officially welcomed by Plant Manager Howard A. Bartholomew, are Saul Schwartz, Gordon T. Miller, Bernard Piasecki, Charles J. Garner and John F. Pollick. All except Pollick were among the 150 members on hand in the Die Casters club.

Bartholomew noted that "occasions like these are good times to take inventory of one's self—find out what has happened to us in life."

"Each one of us has gotten out of life what he wanted, and also what he put into it," he told the group. "Everyone did just what he wanted to do, our lives notwithstanding," he added.

IN PRESENTING the pins and badges of membership, Bartholomew said, "these represent only a small token of what it means to be here tonight."

Members with 35 years in the plant also received awards. They are John J. Murray, Michael Stofko and Edward E. Weldner. Frank P. Nagengast, a 35-year-man, was not in attendance, but will receive his award at a later date.

Walter R. Stoffel also was the recipient of an award for 30 years service. After the dinner, David Jarden of Huntingdon Valley showed a color film of his hunting adventures in Canada.

Jarden explained that he had some difficulty in getting permission to make the trip to Northern Ontario. He gave a running account of the different scenes as they were shown.

Kenneth Nichols led group singing, accompanied by an accordionist.

Scouts' Canvass Nets $865 In 'Lights On' United Fund Drive

United Fund and Boy Scout officials tally the receipts brought in by more than 200 Boy and Girl Scouts during the "lights on" campaign conducted in the borough last night. The drive netted another $865.62 towards the United Fund goal.

CAMPAIGN STILL FAR SHORT OF ITS 1953 GOAL

Final Report Is Scheduled
Today

More than 200 Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts canvassed the borough last night and came through with $865.62 more for the 1953 United Fund campaign.

The "Lights On" campaign still left the United Fund far short of its goal, however.

The goal is $182,000. Prior to last night's campaign, slightly more than $150,000 had been raised. The $865.62 makes the total stand at about $151,000.

The final report on the Fund drive will be made today.

Harry Shellenberger, 236 North Evans street, district Scout commissioner in charge of the drive, said that he expected more contributions through the mail.

"The Scouts covered all districts but the area around Fourth, Fifth and Sixth streets," he said. The Scouts, 13 units of Boy Scouts and one Girl Scout unit, started their collections at 6:30 p.m., knocking on doors of homes where front porch lights were shining.

MOST OF the returns were in by about 9 p.m., although they were still trickling in until 9:30 p.m.

The size of the gifts varied from one penny — in one envelope — to a check for $100, according to Vincio Fisher, executive secretary of the United Fund.

Most of the donations were one dollar bills, although there were several for $50, a few more for $20 and $10.

The headquarters for the drive was the Shellenberger home. In most cases, the Scouts gave their envelopes to their leaders after finishing the districts and the leaders in turn, deposited them at the headquarters.

The Scout units that took part in the drive, along with their leaders, were as follows:

Troop 1, Walter Hutt; Andrew Tirkap, Explorer Scouts Post 92; Troop 5, Wes Nichols; Troop 6, Joseph Bobb; Troop 8, William Sands; Troop 3, William Glenney. Troop 4, Dan Pettigrew; Troop 18, Edward Jamison; Troop 15, Leonard Yergey; Explorer Scouts, Post 106, Robert Hartman; Troop 17, Jack Eck; Stowe Troop 1, Paul Miller.

The Girl Scout troop used was Troop 6, headed by Joan Shellenberger.

Fund Contributor Has Poor Aim But His Heart Is Big

His aim is bad, but his heart is big.

That's what can be said of an anonymous contributor to the United Fund whose gift of three $1 bills reached the Fund yesterday despite handicaps.

The envelope was addressed in bold handwriting to "Mr. Howard W. Bartholomew, Pottstown postoffice, Pottstown, Pa." In a lower corner it said "C/O Postmaster."

(Bartholomew, campaign chairman of the Fund, is Doepler-Jarvis division plant manager.)

Inside were the $3; a clipping of a Mercury article about the United Fund drive's lagging and the front part of an envelope on which was written "C/O Memorial hospital."

Postmaster J. Alfred Marquet saw to it that this envelope reached Bartholomew. It goes to show that you don't need to worry how you mail your contribution. Just mail it.

Blizzard Bad Dream; 'Tulips,' Robin Noted

By NORMAN REED
(Mercury Staff Writer)

You could almost have believed it was Spring yesterday.

Only the fallen leaves and a few patches of snow were around, to remind you it was closer to Thanksgiving.

Aside from that, it was a perfect Spring day.

If you didn't look too closely, you could almost believe the pink and gold chrysanthemums in people's front yards were tulips.

Other flowers were blooming, too, as though the recent freak blizzard was just a bad dream. They were Summer flowers—petunias and alyssum—that reminded the passerby of Springtime's candyfloss and creeping phlox.

ONE AREA resident even reported a Robin in her back yard.

"He was one of the brave ones that stay here all year 'round," she explained.

Not many topcoats were in evidence along High street. Those that were to be seen were worn by those cautious souls who like to be prepared for anything.

"This kind of weather is too good to last," said one topcoat-wearer, removing his hat and wiping his brow.

"You'll just see," he warned, "in a couple more days we'll be hunting up our gloves, scarfs and earmuffs."

More adventurous Pottstownians, deaf to such dire prophecies, not only shed their outer coats but revealed outdoorn doors in shirt sleeves.

At least one backyard gave forth the musical sounds of clinking metal as shirt-sleeved sportsmen pitched an afternoon game of quoits.

On the less-traveled streets, younger bloods weaved happily about on bicycles. On the sidewalks, little girls played at hopscotch and skipped rope.

Local gardeners, frustrated earlier by the snow, happily dug in their flower borders, planting tulips for next Spring.

Some of them, noting that the ground still was workable, decided (Continued on Page Six)

Legion Post Members Discuss Building Plans

Members of Milton-Simms Post 855, American Legion, discussed building plans at their meeting last night.

The post is planning to buy a lot on Lincoln avenue near The Hill school on which to erect a new post home.

Commander Richard A. Miller was in charge of the meeting. At the next meeting on Dec. 1, membership cards for 1954 will be issued to the members.

Here's a Third Winner

If the earnest woman shopper in the ring comes up with the answer by 5 p.m. today, she'll win an easy $2.50 for further Christmas shopping.

From now till Christmas, a Mercury photographer will be in Pottstown stores every shopping day, taking pictures of Christmas shoppers.

Every day's Mercury will have a photo with a "Lucky Ring" around one of the shoppers. If it's you, just come into The Mercury, identify yourself and collect the $2.50. That's all there is to it.

An 18-year-old Pottstown girl, who'd never before won a contest, yesterday became the second person to win $2.50 in the "Lucky Ring" feature.

She is Claudette Clifford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Clifford, 562 Walnut street, who was photographed in the downstairs store of The New York store.

GOP Will Rule For First Time In Earl Township

For the first since its incorporation, Earl township, Berks county, will be under Republican rule come Jan. 1, 1954.

A resignation and an appointment and the defeat of a veteran Democratic supervisor in the Nov. 3 election have lifted the GOP into control.

The newest member of the road board is Monroe K. Moser, Boyertown RD 2, who has been appointed to fill the unexpired term of Lester Groff.

Moser is a Republican and a life-long resident of the township.

Harvey R. Minninger, Democrat, who served as non-member secretary-treasurer for many years has resigned.

Republican Oliver Stoudt defeated board chairman, Arthur M. Sweinhart, Democrat, in the recent election.

Road Foreman John R. Cleaver is the remaining Democrat.

MEMBERS have changed the meeting date to the first Monday night of each month at the Hartline school at 8 o'clock.

The foreman reported a .6 mile stretch of new highway has been completed during the year at a cost of $4600 and a mile of road has been resurfaced at a cost of $1400.

Outgoing Treasurer Minninger reported the township grader has been paid for in full and the cash balance after payment of bills is $800.

The only remaining obligation is a $1700 judgment note borrowed for the construction of macadam roads.

Afternoon Proves Doubly Bad for Three in Family

Three members of a Pottstown area family were recovering yesterday from the effects of a doubly bad afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Mentzer, 309 King street, reported that on Monday afternoon her 85-year-old mother, Mrs. Mary Mentzer, 340 Oak street, fell down an entire flight of stairs while visiting relatives in Lancaster.

She was admitted to Lancaster General hospital with a fractured right arm and severe bruises.

Later that afternoon, the 85-year-old woman's grandson, George Mentzer, Pottstown RD 3, returned from work at Gregory's garage on West High street to find his wife and 3-year-old son, David George, nearly overcome by coal gas.

The Pottstown RD 3 man's mother reported that the baby still was ill yesterday from the effects of gas which leaked from the basement furnace, while the baby's mother still had a severe headache.

The baby's mother was unable to detect the coal gas because she had been using furniture polish and could not detect the gas. She was stretched out on two kitchen chairs when her husband came home, while the baby was unconscious in the living room.

Local Guard Unit Swears In Member

Russel Daniel Klick, Douglassville RD 2, was sworn in as the latest new member of Company A, local National Guard unit, at the drill session last night in the King street armory.

The 17-year-old recruit is employed in civilian life as a packer by the Henricks Pretzel company. He attended West Pottsgrove school.

Company cooks, headed by Sgt. Bernhardt Lerner, cleaned kitchen and mess equipment in preparation for the annual Federal inspection of armories next January.

Classes and instructors at the weekly drill were:

Domestic disturbances, Sgt. Gerald D. Landis; rifle training, Corp. Robert Oberholzer; mortar gunners' training, Corp. Alyn Walt; machine gun, Corp. William D. Vanderslice, and pastry baking, Sgt. Lerner.

Car Backing in Alley Is Involved in Crash

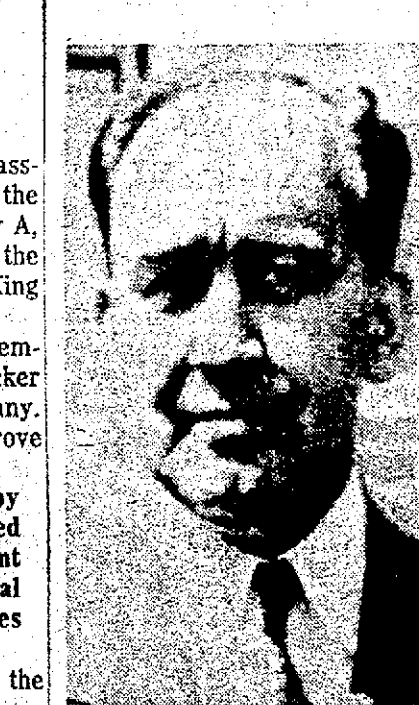

A car backing from an alley garage collided with a westbound alley auto off East Third street last night.

James Lucious Hague, Boyertown RD 2, reported to police at borough hall he was traveling west on an alley to the rear of 12 East Third street, when a car operated by Josephine Nettles, 12 East Third street, backed out of a garage and collided with his sedan.

The right front fender and right front door of Hague's 1947 sedan was damaged. There was no damage to the Nettles' vehicle.

The accident took place at 6 o'clock.

Named to Board

John W. LeVeille, Grandview road, has been named to the board of directors of Pottstown hospital. He is president of Erntex Knitting Mills, Inc., Gilbertsville, and replaces D. K. Bullens on the board.

K of C Committee
Plans Activities
For Coming Month

The program committee of Father Bally Council 1192, Knights of Columbus, met last night to plan activities for the next month.

John Katona, program chairman, was in charge of the meeting, which was held at the home of Grand Knight Nick Palladino.

General plans were made for approval by the Council at its Dec. 13 meeting, Katona said.

Members of the five-point committee who attended were Thomas Kassel, Catholic activities; Lawrence Moyer, council activities; Cornelius Guinee, fraternal; Paul Gatta, membership, and John Pastovic, publicity.

Most of the donations were one dollar bills, although there were several for $50, a few more for $20 and $10.

The headquarters for the drive was the Shellenberger home. In most cases, the Scouts gave their envelopes to their leaders after finishing the districts and the leaders in turn, deposited them at the headquarters.

The Scout units that took part in the drive, along with their leaders were as follows:

- Troop 1, Walter Hutt; Andrew Tirpak, Explorer Scouts Post 92; Troop 5, Wes Nichols; Troop 6, Joseph Bobb; Troop 8, William Sands; Troop 3, William Glenney; Troop 4, Dan Pettigrew; Troop 18, Edward Jamison; Troop 15, Leonard Yergey; Explorer Scouts, Post 106, Robert Hartman; Troop 17, Jack Eck; Stowe Troop 1, Paul Miller.

The Girl Scout troop used was Troop 6, headed by Joan Shellenberger.

Fund Contributor
Has Poor Aim But His Heart Is Big

His aim is bad, but his heart is big.

That's what can be said of an anonymous contributor to the United Fund whose gift of three $1 bills reached the Fund yesterday despite handicaps.

The envelope was addressed in bold handwriting to "Mr. Howard W. Bartholomew, Pottstown postoffice, Pottstown, Pa." In a lower corner it said "C/O Postmaster."

(Bartholomew, campaign chairman of the Fund, is Doehler-Jarvis division plant manager.)

Inside were: the $3; a clipping of a Mercury article about the United Fund drive's lagging and the front part of an envelope on which was written "C/O Memorial hospital."

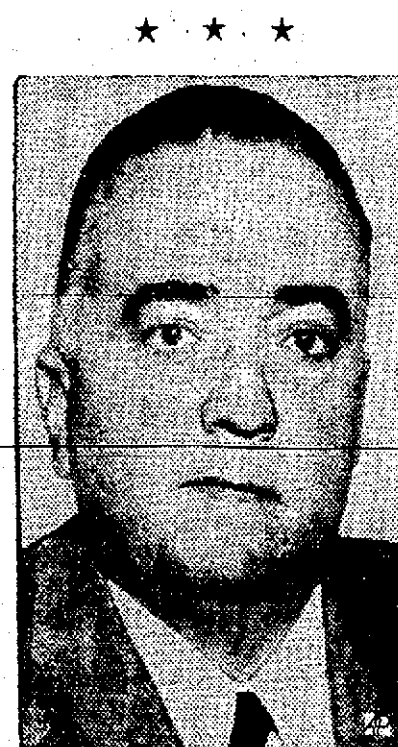

Postmaster J. Alfred Marquet saw to it that this envelope reached Bartholomew. It goes to show that you don't need to worry how you mail your contribution. Just mail it.

J. Edgar Hoover Explodes New Sensation in White Case; Tells Probers Promotion 'Hampered' FBI Surveillance

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover swore today that former President Truman's promotion of Harry Dexter White to the International Monetary Fund "hampered" FBI surveillance of the alleged Soviet spy. This testimony, which exploded a new sensation in the drama-crammed case, came less than 24 hours after Truman told a nationwide TV audience that he let the promotion go through so as not to "endanger" the FBI investigation. His argument was that to fire White would have tipped the al-

Highlights of Talks By Brownell, Hoover

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—Highlights of testimony by FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover and Attorney General Brownell before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee in the Harry Dexter White case: HOOVER: "At no time was the FBI a party to an agreement to promote Harry Dexter White, and at no time did the FBI give its approval to such an agreement." "I told the attorney general (Tom Clark, on Feb. 21, 1946) I felt it was unwise for White to serve (in the Monetary Fund post)." Clark later told him, Hoover said, that former president Truman wanted White kept under surveillance in the Monetary Fund post and he agreed it would be done. But he said the transfer made surveillance more difficult because Monetary Fund headquarters had extra territorial status and FBI agents had "no right" to follow White on the premises.

BROWNELL: "I believe you will conclude, as I did, that there was an unwillingness on the part of Mr. Truman and others around him to face the facts, and a persistent delusion that Communist espionage in high places in our Government was a red herring. And I believe you will conclude that this attitude, this delusion, may have resulted in great harm to our nation." "The record fails to show that anything was done which interfered with the continued functioning of the espionage ring of which White was a part." "The opportunities afforded him (White) in that (Monetary Fund) capacity for betraying the country were very great."

"The White case illustrates that it is not enough for men in high Government positions to be loyal. They must also be vigilant to combat the dangers to our government and to our free institutions."

much difference between blindness and stupidity. "I prefer my own words," Brownell said with a smile, "but you're getting pretty close to it." Laughter and applause swept through the huge marble Senate caucus room where the hearing was held.

BROWNELL has said Hoover sent the White House two reports on Soviet espionage, one a general document dealing with White and others in December, 1945, and a second relating to White alone the following Feb. 4.

The Senate subcommittee took note of published reports that White's move to the monetary fund was under an arrangement with the FBI so that White could be kept under better surveillance without tipping any persons involved in espionage.

It was largely to clear up this point, Chairman Jenner (R-Ind), said that the subcommittee felt it necessary to call Hoover to the witness stand.

And on that point, Hoover said: "I did not enter into any agreement to shift White from the Treasury department to the International Monetary Fund. This was not within my purview."

The FBI, he said, never objected to getting rid of Government officials on whom it had evidence of subversive activities.

In fact, he said, he told Attorney General Clark on Feb. 11, 1946, a fortnight after the Senate approved the White appointment, it would be "unwise" to let White remain in Government. He said Clark told him "an effort would be made to remove Harry Dexter White, although the attorney general expressed doubt that this would work out."

8-Year Secrecy Lid Lifted by Brownell

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—Attorney General Brownell today broke an eight-year seal of secrecy on FBI reports, sent to the White House during the Truman Administration, which told of the wholesale theft of US secrets by an alleged Soviet spy ring within the Government.

Testifying with Brownell at a tense congressional hearing, FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover disclosed that the FBI delivered seven separate warnings to the White House—not two as reported earlier—dealing with espionage and specifically mentioning Harry Dexter White.

This was in the period from Nov. 8, 1945 to July 24, 1946. Brownell indicated in his testimony that in addition to the FBI alarm signals flashed to the White House, high Canadian Government officials expressed concern about White's background in the light of his appointment to a high post in the International Monetary Fund.

The attorney general partially lifted the lid from reports to document his politically explosive charge that former President Truman promoted White in the face of repeated FBI warnings that White was linked to a Soviet espionage apparatus.

Brownell said Hoover warned the White House in November, 1945, that a network of Communist spies was transmitting US Government secrets to Moscow—and named names, including White and at least 11 others, as the sources, whether wittingly or not, of the stolen data.

CROWDS AT TRIAL—This is a part of the crowd which jammed into the corridor outside the Federal courtroom in Kansas City, Mo., seeking to watch the proceedings at the trial of Carl Austin Hall and Bonnie Brown Heady for the kidnaping and slaying of Bobby Greenlease, 6.

HAD $592,000 WHEN ARRESTED

Jury Hears How Hall Kidnaped, Killed Bobby Greenlease

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 17 (AP)—The sordid climax of a wasted life unfolded before a federal jury today in Carl Austin Hall's confession of how he kidnaped and killed fair-haired little Bobby Greenlease. The jury will determine whether Hall and his common-law wife, Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, 41, shall die in Missouri's gas chamber. Their guilt is admitted already. Hall's confession was among the last of the dramatic steps in the Government's drive to complete its case late today. US District Attorney Edward L. Scheufler said that technical and corroborative evidence would finish his case. For 70 minutes today, FBI Agent Arthur S. Reeder of Denver read in a clear, unemotional voice the confession he helped obtain from Hall. All that time Hall kept his eyes downcast. Much of the time one hand covered his mouth. He pursed his lips occasionally. He was impassive as the jury listened to the tangled story of the $600,000 ransom; half of it still missing.

Hall once was quoted as saying he thought the missing money had been lost during a drunken spree. But today, his confession revealed for the first time that he had just taken an inventory of the money and had approximately $592,000 in his possession when he was arrested at a St. Louis hotel Oct. 6. Hall told of seeing a mystery man in the hallway near the door to his hotel room after his arrest. He said he was sure the two officers who arrested him did not take the money with them when they drove him to the police station.

AT one point, Hall said, the larger of the two officers urged him to "give me the facts and I will get a promotion." Within a few feet of the killer sat Robert C. Greenlease, 71-year-old multimillionaire father of little Bobby. His face hardened in grim lines and his mouth twitched occasionally. But he kept his eyes away from the slayers as the confession's tragic story unfolded.

Hall's confession, said little Bobby "appeared to be enjoying himself during the trip" from the exclusive Catholic school where Mrs. Heady lured him away on the pretext that his mother was ill.

While Hall got a plastic sheet ready for the murder in the back of Mrs. Heady's station wagon, Bobby sat on the front seat unaware of his fate.

"I HAD a piece of rope which was part of a clothesline I had obtained from Bonnie's home," Hall's confession said. "I then placed this

Mrs. Greenlease Testifies at Trial

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 17 (AP)—Mrs. Robert C. Greenlease faced the kidnap killers of her only son in Federal court today and told how the slayer lied to her about little Bobby's safety.

She told how she talked with the killer, Hall four times on the telephone. He was trying to arrange the ransom pickup and identified himself each time only as "M," his code name.

She said "M" assured her again and again that her boy was safe and would be returned within 24 hours after the kidnapers got the ransom money.

She said "M" told her: "Lady, he is alive. He is driving us nuts. We have earned this money."

Mrs. Greenlease told how she tried to get a chance to talk with Bobby on the phone. He already was dead, but the family's hopes were still alive at that time.

Crippled Plane Hits 7 Paratroopers Floating to Earth; 8 Others Also Die

FT. BRAGG, N. C., Nov. 17 (AP)—Fifteen men, seven of them paratroopers floating helplessly from parachutes, were killed today when a crippled C119 Flying Boxcar broke formation and crashed in woods on this Army reservation.

The death figure was released by the 18th Airborne corps public information office several hours after the crash. It occurred as the Air Force was dropping about 1000 paratroopers of the 82nd Airborne division during a high-level conference on joint airborne operations. Seven of the victims were drifting earthward and the other eight rode the plane to their deaths, a spokesman said. The plane apparently developed engine trouble while dropping about 40 paratroopers. It broke from its formation of 12 big transports and hit troopers who had just jumped from another plane.

Maj. M. R. Fowler, public information officer of the 18th Airborne corps, said the pilot, flying at about 1200 feet, veered sharply to the left in an apparent attempt to avoid hitting more paratroopers. This, he said, probably hastened the crash into woods at the end of drop zone Holland. The zone, named after the 82nd Division's famed World War II jump, is used for paratroopers training and is between Ft. Bragg and the resort city of Southern Pines.

DATA FROM WIRE TAPS WASN'T AVAILABLE TO JURY WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—Attorney General Brownell said today the FBI had certain information about Harry Dexter White, obtained by wire tapping, which could not be put before the grand jury which looked into espionage charges against White in 1947.

Brownell agreed that White and many others testified before the grand jury, but he said some of the evidence on White gathered by the FBI had been received from wire taps. The attorney general added that in Federal courts evidence obtained by wire tapping, or even leads obtained from wire taps, cannot be introduced. So, he said, such evidence was not available to the grand jurors.

leged spy ring that it was under surveillance.

Hoover, on the other hand, declared that he warned high Administration officials that White was "unfit" for office and that it would be "unwise" to keep him. At no time, Hoover stressed, was the FBI a party to any agreement to shift White from assistant secretary of the Treasury to US director on the Monetary Fund, although on Truman's orders the FBI did continue to watch White after the transfer.

Attorney General Brownell, whom Truman accused last night of lying, opened up today with a counter-charge that the Truman regime failed to take even "minimum precautions" in the White case. He declared there is "considerable doubt that anything was done to protect the national interest" against White and others named in FBI reports as members of an espionage ring.

The cabinet officer and FBI director testified at a nationally televised hearing of the Senate Internal Security subcommittee as it looked into:

Brownell's Nov. 6 charge that Truman promoted White in 1946 in the face of the FBI reports about him.

TRUMAN'S blasting reply last night that Brownell "lied" to the American people about him and "degraded" the nation's highest legal office with "political skulduggery."

Hundreds of spectators looked on as Brownell and Hoover told their side of the story under oath. Volleys of applause greeted some of their salient statements. Radio, television, and newsreel and still cameras recorded it all.

Brownell produced a hitherto top secret letter Hoover wrote to Truman's military aide, Major Gen. Harry H. Vaughan on Nov. 8, 1945, about operations of a "Soviet espionage system."

White was second on the list of 14 persons described as "participants in this operation" or "utilized by principals in this ring" for the "purpose of obtaining data in which the Soviet is interested."

Vaughan, Hoover testified, was the person to whom Truman had asked that FBI reports be sent. He said this was in keeping with practices in the Administrations of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Herbert Hoover.

ANOTHER previously secret Hoover letter to Vaughan on Feb. 1, 1946 disclosed that some of the information about White came from undisclosed Canadian sources concerned about White's shift to the monetary fund.

Brownell emphasized anew that he wasn't impugning Truman's loyalty, but he did not retreat an inch from his original statement that started the whole controversy boiling—that White "was known to be a Communist spy by the very people who appointed him to the most sensitive and important position he ever held in Government service."

Questioned sharply by Senator McClellan (D-Ark), Brownell said he could not see how "any reasonable person, with legal training, could reach a different conclusion. He agreed with McClellan that in essence he was saying that White was "known by Harry Truman to be a Communist spy."

Was Brownell, then, accusing Truman of stupidity, McClellan demanded.

"I used the term 'blindness,'" the attorney general came back. "Mr. Truman is not a stupid man."

McClellan said there wasn't much difference between blindness and stupidity.

"I prefer my own words," Brownell said with a smile, "but you're getting pretty close to it."

Laughter and applause swept through the huge marble Senate caucus room where the hearing was held.

BROWNELL has said Hoover sent the White House two reports on Soviet espionage, one a general document dealing with White and others in December, 1945, and a second relating to White alone the following Feb. 4.

The Senate subcommittee took note of published reports that White's move to the monetary fund was under an arrangement with the FBI so that White could be kept under better surveillance without tipping any persons involved in espionage.

East Coventry's John Savage Bids Farewell After 41 Years on Board

By ROBERT E. HOYER
(Mercury Staff Writer)

The cold winters in the dry, drifting snow of Iowa, miles of turned sod and stubble, President McKinley's assassination and the inauguration of Benjamin Harrison on a raw March morning, danced in the back ground when East Coventry's John A. Savage, said good-bye to old friends last night.

He stood there before them — teachers and members of East Coventry school board — with his wide shoulders drooping a little from age and the tussle of the fields.

His big, honest, granite-cut face looked sad and you could tell he was recalling the past.

There wasn't a person in front of him — 29 directors and teachers, were there — who was on the scene at East Coventry when he was elected to the board in 1911.

William Howard Taft was in the White House when a young and aggressive Savage won his first term.

In 1931 Savage was defeated in a bid for re-election, but was retained from that year of depression until 1951 as a non-member secretary.

He has been retained in an advisory capacity until next Jan. 1. When teachers and directors, weeks ago began planning their annual banquet they decided to honor the retiring secretary who served 41 years as board member and secretary.

A life-long Republican he recalled, "Democrats never controlled our board. In fact during my time they never had more than one member of the board."

When Savage first took office the township had six one-room schools and a two-year high school. In 1925 the present consolidated school was completed — a school which has continued to serve grades one through eight in the township.

AND LAST night when he climbed to his feet to thank his old friends for the testimonial banquet at the Clover Leaf restaurant, he remembered Taft and Taft's son, the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, and you might say a host of others.

After 41 years, 41 years of change and chance, Savage stepped aside this past July 1.

After election to the board in 1911, he was named secretary on July 1, 1912 during the Summer campaign of the Nation's wildest, three-way Presidential race, a campaign which featured Woodrow Wilson, Taft and Theodore Roosevelt.

Future Farmers Conduct Program at Norco PTA Meeting

Youthful farmers of North Coventry township had a chance to explain some of their projects at the meeting of the Norco Parent-Teacher association last night.

The program in the elementary school was in charge of the local Future Farmers of America.

Harold Bealer was program chairman.

The future farmers, who are vocational agriculture pupils at Norco High school, showed picture slides of their farm projects and gave short talks explaining their work.

Musical entertainment was presented by the Pine Forge Institute choir, directed by Charles Jones.

The choir sang a program of familiar hymns and spirituals.

Harry Bickel Jr., PTA president, was in charge of the meeting. About 150 persons attended.

Bickel announced that the PTA will buy more radio-phonographs for the school classrooms.

A. Ervin Colver led in devotions, and Susan Phillips in group singing. Mrs. J. Ralph Rutter was piano accompanist.

Twaddell Hopes for Return to Council

William B. Twaddell, re-elected victory over Republican Walter E. Fizz in gaining a third term. He was re-elected from the Philadelphia veterans hospital. He said he came back to live with his wife in the Second ward because he needed "a special diet and careful attention."

Twaddell was evicted from his high and Washington streets apartment at the end of the past month.

Before his eviction he said he would seek out bachelor quarters in the Fourth ward.

He gave no indication last night when he would be well enough to resume residence in the ward.

The veteran Democrat sponsored the continuance of Federal rent control this past Spring. When controls were lifted in August he received his eviction notice within three days.

His physician, Dr. Abraham Bernstein, reported, "his condition is improving."

Twaddell was stricken this past Oct. 15. His illness has been diagnosed as a perforated ulcer.

Harman Sees Increased Federal School Aid in Future

Increased federal aid to education has made provisions for handicapped children who are "trainable but not educatable."

Dr. Allen C. Harman last night told 68 members of the New Hanover-Upper Frederick Parent-Teacher association.

Dr. Harman is assistant superintendent of schools for Montgomery county and chairman of legislation of the county council of PTA's. Last night he discussed recent school legislative and educational programs.

"Our greatest problem in connection with federal aid to education will be to see to it that no political strings are attached to the money given," Dr. Harman stressed.

He emphasized that the prime reason for the necessity of federal aid is that so many states are unable to provide the kind of schools they should have.

"ONLY 2 percent of the national income today is spent for education, whereas 10 years ago the figure was between 3 and 5 percent—and that was too low," he asserted.

Dr. Harman noted that the State has made provisions for handicapped children who are "trainable but not educatable."

Special county classes are held in Pottstown and Souderston, with the State reimbursing the district for the expense and the parents for the transportation involved, he said.

In discussing the session of the State legislature this past Spring, JOHN Plank, a representative of the New Hanover-Upper Frederick Joint Elementary school board, told PTA members last night that the new school will not be opened until the first of the year.

Construction was started this past Spring, with the completion date scheduled for Dec. 1, but Plank said the recent snowstorm had hampered work to such an extent that the delay became necessary.

Mrs. Jack Greenberg, president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. William Bolhofer, budget and finance chairman, gave a report, as did Mrs. John E. Horn, program chairman.

Mrs. Alan Lysinger, publicity chairman, also gave a report on her activities on behalf of the organization. Refreshments were served by the hospitality committee.

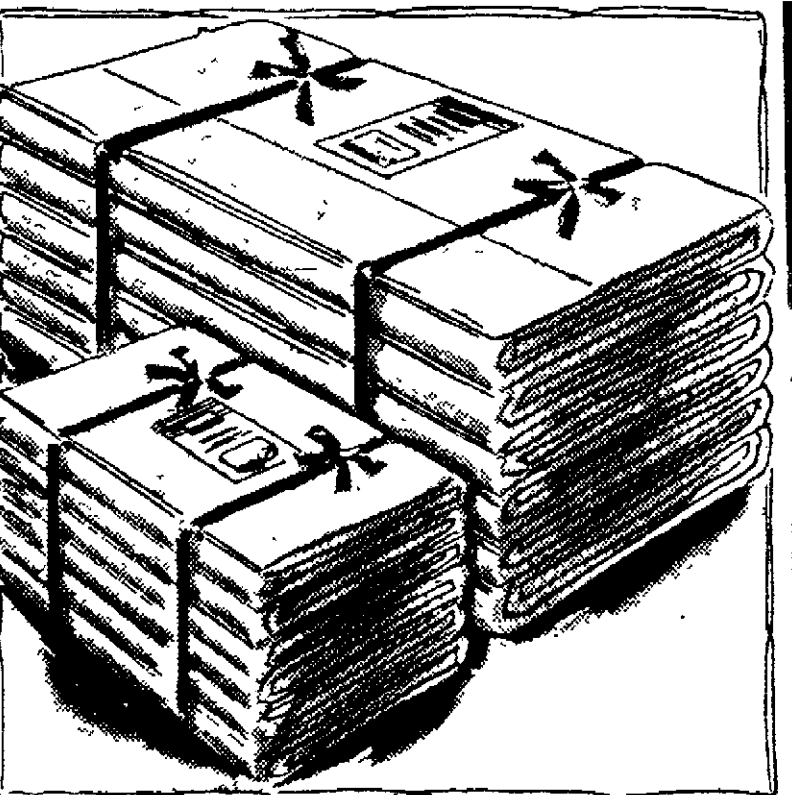

The next meeting will be Dec. 15, when a Christmas program will be presented.

ARMY PVT. CHARLES DeLong, 20-year-old son of Mrs. Pearl DeLong, Birdsboro, arrived this week at Camp Kilmer, N. J., and expects to be sent overseas. He entered the Army the past May 20 and took basic training at Camp Rucker, Ala.

East Coventry's John Savage Bids Farewell After 41 Years on Board

By ROBERT E. HOYER
(Mercury Staff Writer)

The cold Winters in the dry, drifting snow of Iowa, miles of turned sod and stubble, President McKinley's assassination and the inauguration of Benjamin Harrison on a raw March morning danced in the back ground when East Coventry's John A. Savage said good-bye to old friends last night.

He stood there before them — teachers and members of East Coventry school board — with his wide shoulders drooping a little from age and the tussle of the fields.

His big, honest, granite-cut face looked sad and you could tell he was recalling the past.

There wasn't a person in front of him—29 directors and teachers were there—who was on the scene at East Coventry when he was elected to the board in 1911.

William Howard Taft was in the White House when a young and aggressive Savage won his first term.

AND LAST night when he climbed to his feet to thank his old friends for the testimonial banquet at the Clover Leaf restaurant, he remembered Taft and Taft's son, the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, and you might say a host of others.

BORN IN East Coventry, Savage spent eight years of his youth on an Iowa farm. Then his father, whose health failed in the severe Winters of the plains, moved back to East Coventry.

Until 10 years ago the gray-haired secretary worked his 90-acre farm near Parkerford.

Now he lives in a quiet country home near Miller's corner.

Savage recalled the inauguration of President Harrison and the fighting campaign of Nebraska Democrat William Jennings Bryan.

In comparing modern schooling with the problem which confronted directors in his day, he asserted, "We get more State aid today than we did then."

Board President Frank E. Elliott, Principal Ray Woodland and assistant county Superintendent Webster C. Herzog (whose first teaching assignment was at East Coventry) congratulated Savage and thanked him for his years of service.

William Fryer, a member of the faculty since 1939, presented him a cash gift from teachers.

After the turkey dinner teachers and directors dug into the alert Savage memory.

Twaddell Hopes for Return to Council

William B. Twaddell, re-elected to a third council term this past Nov. 3, last night said he hoped to return to council floor despite a severe illness.

The veteran Democrat, who came back from the new veterans hospital in Philadelphia, a week ago, is living at 344 King street apartment of his wife, Anna, in the Second ward.

Twaddell explained, "I consulted my doctor here in town and I will have to go back to the hospital (Pottstown hospital) where he spent two weeks prior to going to Philadelphia) for another X-ray series."

"I've gained a little weight but I still feel pretty weak," Twaddell won a 125 to 100 vote over Republican Walter E. Fizz in gaining a third term.

He was re-elected from the Philadelphia veterans hospital.

He said he came back to live with his wife in the Second ward because he needed "a special diet and careful attention."

Twaddell was evicted from his High and Washington streets apartment at the end of the past month.

In order to find out how these substances do their work, attempts were made to make them radioactive, since radioactive substances can be studied and measured easily.

This finally has been accomplished with cortisone and hydrocortisone. The

The radioactivation of these preparations was accomplished by means of complicated scientific process in which a hormone known as progesterone was made radioactive. It was then formed into cortisone and tagged with a radio-

Wonder Kids Weren't Killed

A pair of 13-year-old Pottstown boys, riding double on a bicycle, rolled through a busy intersection the other day and were clipped by an automobile.

Fortunately, they were not injured seriously.

This is what The Mercury reported yesterday.

There was no follow-up to the story because Pottstown police evidently took no notice of the incident. At least there was no reported police action.

And there's no telling if the 13-year-olds were taken to the woodshed by their fathers, there to be told about the law which says there's to be no double-up bicycle riding on Pottstown streets.

Law? Oh, yes! There's a bicycle law. It tells the youth of Pottstown how they must deport themselves when riding their bikes. It tells how to signal turns, how to be polite by staying off sidewalks, how to show courtesy of the law.

Then it imposes a levy of 25 cents a year for bicycle licenses. With the license comes another little booklet explaining the rules of the road, etc.

The Pottstown police department seems to be interested only in the 25-cent pieces it can collect from bicycle owners, youths and adults alike.

At least the head of the Pottstown police department seems to have forgotten all about the good parts of the law; the part that was enacted to protect the bicycle-riding youngsters.

There was to be a bicycle court, with lessons in obedience and lessons in respect for the law. There was to be safety lectures. There was to be police supervision.

But all that has been forgotten. Why, the chief of police even forgot to order enough 1953 license tags and today Pottstown's kids are told to scoff at the law by riding their bikes without tags!

Why is there no respect for law? Point your finger at that laxity!

Anyway, Pottstown's kids are riding double and even triple. They're riding on the sidewalks—even on High Street's busy sidewalks. They ride on the wrong side of the street. Watch them after school dismissal. It's a free-for-all in law breaking.

All this without police censure! Now there's no reason to be harsh on kids, but when Councilman Earl R. Strange handled the enforcement of the bicycle law early after its passage, there were big things indicated for youth of the community.

But what happened? First of all, the chief of police delayed issuing license tags because the rules books, which contained his picture, hadn't arrived. They were held up because printing his picture took time!

Then the bicycle court was forgotten after some of the foot police did their level best to make a go of the law.

Their vigilance may have broken up many an incipient crime—for one Pottstown policeman was alert enough to issue a summons to a boy in his teens found riding here and there after midnight!

What is wrong with enforcing the bicycle law provisions? Police probably got tired of it because they received no support from superior officers. It became a joke—and no orders were issued to enforce the law.

There's nothing wrong with the law. In fact, sympathetic enforcement could lead to much good among juveniles. It would be possible, as a policeman once proposed to deaf superiors' ears, to form bicycle clubs. To have bicycle runs. To have lectures on safety.

It would be fun riding a bike if kids knew they had a big brother in police uniform who'd protect them if they got in a jam. But such intelligent enforcement of the law in the Pottstown police department is too much to ask for!

No wonder Pottstown voters want a change!

Wal, I see by The Mercury where Mrs. Mary Neiman, 75-year-old Salvation Army worker, got a new bonnet for her 45 years' work with the citadel. That's just about the nicest gift you can give a lady—a new hat!

The Mercury was filled with Truman today, and tomorrow it'll be filled with Brownell. It's hard to follow the plot of Washington's latest spy drama, but it sure has an all-star cast!

And say: "The frost is on the pumpkin," may be poetic, but more to my taste is when the pumpkin's on the piecrust!

Women's Mouths Bigger?
To the Editor: What is happening to our women?

I've watched Pottstown girls and women on the street, in the work shops and in relaxation and I've noticed that they are growing wide mouths.

Do you think they are any wider and larger than women of the past generations? I think so. I know my mother's wasn't so wide.

I don't believe it's the lipstick they smear all over their lips.

What I really believe is that smoking is making their mouths bigger.

They're sucking or puffing on cigarettes the whole day long and the whole night long. They puff and puff, and I think this makes their mouths bigger and it's not becoming in my estimation.

Have you noticed this trend?

Wolves Not Upsetting

To the Editor: In reply to "Young Girl" ("Dislikes Boy's Actions," Readers Say, Nov. 13), she shouldn't let a few wolf whistles or wolfish looks upset her. The types of fellows to take heed of are the soft-spoken ones who dish out with the lines and then cast you aside to others.

They are conceited, egotistical, and vain creatures of the male species sometimes referred to as "Don Juans." At least a girl knows what to expect from the frankness of the Main street wolf.

Also, in reference to this "smut problem," which need not have been a problem in the first place if so much attention had not been drawn to it.

WASHINGTON GOP Blunders Seen In White Spy Affair

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17—The Eisenhower Administration's utter lack of any "political it and savvy," as well as the complete absence of coordination between Capitol Hill, the White House and Republican national headquarters, is illustrated vividly in the inept management of the Brownell-Truman-White espionage affair.

It accounts for Nation-wide protests from Party leaders against so many serious blunders in the fields of public, political and human relations. Although the disclosures in this scandal were revealed in detail in a report by the Senate Internal Security subcommittee on Aug. 23, Atty.-Gen. Herbert Brownell did not involve ex-President Truman and several former Cabinet members until ten days ago.

The unexplainable delay has raised questions concerning the motives behind the belated charge that Truman promoted a Russian agent and conspirator in spite of FBI warnings that he was disloyal and untrustworthy. Brownell's poor timing makes it look like a deliberate, partisan "smear."

MINIMIZED BY TRUMAN: Truman insists that it is a smoke screen to minimize the recent ballot-box defeats in New York, New Jersey and Wisconsin. Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell brands it as an attempt—and a successful one—to influence the past week's special election in the 24th California district.

Less interested people conclude that the GOP, in fright over possible 1954 and 1956 reverses, intends to use the Red issue against the Democrats as the latter capitalized for 20 years on the campaign question of "Do you want to go back to the Hoover apple-selling days?"

Far more important than the political angle, the bungling from start to finish creates doubt about the ballyhooed and supposedly superior efficiency, intelligence and businesslike procedure of the Republican regime at Washington.

It furnishes a more understandable background to the grave discrepancies in pronouncements on foreign problems—eventual recognition of Communist China, storage of atomic bombs in Spain, the US attitude toward the Israeli-Arab dispute—by Eisenhower and Dulles and such ambulating spokesmen as Vice President Nixon and Asst. Defense Sec. Talbott.

OTHERS TO BLAME: Presidential apologists now place partial responsibility on Sen. William E. Jenner of Indiana, chairman of the Senate subcommittee, and his staff. They did their unconscious best to conceal the gravity of their anti-Communist discoveries from public, press and politicians.

Here is the "lead"—the first paragraph—which the Jenner journalists and publicists wrote for the newspaper release that told in detail of the Truman neglect of FBI revelations about Harry Dexter White:

"The Soviet international organization has carried on a successful and important penetration of the United States Government, and this penetration has not been fully exposed." This statement was merely a rehash of stuff that had been developed five years and more ago in the Hiss trials and other Congressional inquiries.

Not until page 2 of the Jenner release—about 1000 words later—does it touch on the White episode, and then only delicately.

No White Line
To the Editor: It's been a long time since Route 100 was reconditioned.

But what ever happened to the white line that's supposed to run down the center?

Obviously someone once intended to put one there, because there are little white dots every 50 feet or so to indicate to the road crew where the line is supposed to go.

But there's no white line.

And the little white dots don't do the straining fog-bound motorist much good.

So how about someone seeing to it that the motorists get a white line to follow.

Speed Nitwits

To the Editor: How is the forgotten man of the automobile age—the pedestrian—supposed to cross a street?

The street I have in mind is right at High and Hanover. The zany nitwits behind the steering wheel have it all their own way.

For them it's a miniature version of the start of the Indianapolis speedway races.

They keep their eyes glued to the traffic lights and play a game of quick getaway with any other vehicle at the crossing.

The cars going in one direction run right through the amber. In the split second that the light turns green, the others blast off, watching only to cut out the cars on either side.

Pedestrians trying to cross? They only draw a chuckle from the drivers as they scramble madly for the relative safety of the sidewalk.

I'm in favor of traffic lights that recognize that some people walk nowadays, too. I want traffic lights that stop all traffic once in a while and read "Walk."

Pottstown R.P.

Dislikes Lights

To the Editor: I see they're rushing the season again this year—with the Christmas lights along High street, I mean.

Seems they just can't wait for Thanksgiving Day to be over before starting this wasteful holiday decorating.

Does anyone ever consider the amount of electricity consumed in frivolous Christmas lighting?

And who pays the electric bill? Whoever is in favor of trying to make all High street look like a Christmas tree should foot the bill, I say.

Rushing the Season

To the Editor: Isn't Pottstown rushing the season a bit, putting up its Christmas street decorations this early?

By the time Santa Claus pays his visit, I'm afraid the lights and tinsel will elicit as much enthusiasm as would a pumpkin pie baked for Thanksgiving and left standing until December 25.

Speaking For Myself

When I was a little girl of 7 or 8, I used to compose a letter to Santa Claus along about this time of year.

It was a childish and therefore candid report on my hopes and dreams for the morning of December 25, written with the approval of my mother and designed specifically to assist Santa in his impossible task of getting presents to the right kids. As I recall it was an enormously practical and usually quite successful custom, and I don't know why I ever stopped observing it.

In fact I think I will revive it. Right now.

After all, I know Santa is going to bring me SOMETHING. I've been a good girl, or at least no worse than usual, and he always scatters a few prezies under my tree. What's the matter with letting him know what I need—or even more urgently, what I don't need and wouldn't be caught dead with?

SO—I TAKE my pen in hand and write:

Dearest Santa Claus:
If you are thinking of wriggling down my chimney this year, please

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

JOHNNY S. is in the Seventh grade. "Dr. Crane, I think my mother is what you call a menopausal wife," he told me a few days ago.

"She gets to crying and accuses my Dad of not loving her. She says he is crazy about some other woman."

"But I know she is wrong for I've been out with Dad a lot of times when Mother accused him of being on a date with some woman."

"Then she develops hysterics and cries and locks herself in the bedroom. It upsets me and I am embarrassed to invite kids home after school for I never know how she'll act before them."

"So could you please give me some bulletins that might help her?"

JOHNNY READS the newspaper regularly, for he has problems of the usual junior high schooler.

Thus, he wants to win friends among his classmates and be popular and become an athlete, etc.

That's a big enough job for most grammar schoolers. But he now has also attempted to carry some of the problems that rightfully belong to his parents.

Incidentally, Johnny illustrates the vast educational influence of the modern newspaper in helping promote happy homes, instead of divorces.

For where else do you suppose Johnny could have learned about such psychological problems if his newspaper editor hadn't pioneered this column in clinical psychology?

So be grateful to American journalism for expanding college education for everybody who can read, which includes about 125 million Americans.

MENOPAUSAL UPSETS in women are chiefly in their imagination, for the womb is not primarily a sex organ, anyway.

But ever since Eve, women have erroneously imagined that their romantic charm was linked with the regular function of the uterus.

So, when they lost their womb by a hysterectomy in early life, or when it normally stopped at about the age of 45, most women have then become worried, fearful and even hysterical.

"I simply can't be attractive to my husband any longer!" they have wrongly imagined.

This thought devastates their morale. So they accuse their husbands just to see if the latter still love them.

Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 17—Louis Calhern is convinced that Hollywood is here to stay. In fact, that is precisely what he said when he signed a new contract with Metro a couple days ago.

Calhern, back from a tour in connection with openings of "Julius Caesar" around the country, also expressed delight at the way this Shakespearean picture (in which he plays the title role) was accepted by audiences wherever he appeared. Calhern has made 24 movies since 1949—the latest being "Panther Squadron 8." He next goes into "The Student Prince" with Ann Blyth and Edward G. Robinson.

By contrast, young Race Gentry, who has had only a couple of small parts, but who scored in "The Lawless Breed," gets a shove toward stardom this month. He has been given the third lead in "Echo Canyon" with Joel McCrea and Mari Blanchard.

STEVE CRANE once wed to Lana Turner, and the father of her daughter, Cheryl, hops around Hollywood as though he were the town's most eligible bachelor. Actually, he's not yet free from his French wife, Martine Carol, from whom he's been separated for more than a year. He says Martine is seeking a church annulment and if she gets it, will file a civil suit. Then she expects to marry Christian Jacques, a European director. . . . The Gene Kellys, who've been renting their Beverly Hills place all the while they spent abroad, are again living in their own home for the first time in over two years.

OLD TIMERS will be interested to know that Bebe Daniels and Ben Lyon, who've been living in England for many years, and are big radio favorites there, are preparing a full length feature picture which they will produce and co-star in. It is titled "Life With the Lyons." They hope after the picture has been released abroad, it will be cut into short segments and presented piecemeal on American television sets. . . . I wonder how many recognize a woman who plays a small part in "Sangaree," with Arlene Dahl and Fernando Lamas. The woman I mean is Jean Acker, former wife of Rudolph Valentino. . . . And while in "memory lane," this line from a fan magazine story about the long-ago romance of Gary Cooper and Lupe Velez, strikes me as very funny—though it was not meant to be:—"Gary and Lupe loved ardently and wildly. They drove around town in a convertible with the top down." (!)

Six feet tall, stacked at about 190 pounds, Shoemaker was strong. But the load almost beat him.

★ SMILES WERE forbidden and the deskman asked him to drop the heavy, complicated gadget in a corner. No light beamed for Hilles. And the next night was worse! "You didn't get the flipfram for the gableddocker on that paper stretcher," the deskman said. So Shoemaker obediently trudged to the mechanical department. This time a printer gave him the whole side of an obsolete press. It must have weighed a ton. He looped it over his head, on both shoulders, and dragged it down into the lobby. It's a wonder it didn't crack the marble steps. And it's no wonder that the whole editorial department then broke out in loud laughs. Shoemaker raised an angry head over his yoke. Then he dropped the iron frame with a loud clang. He picked up his hat and ran out of the office. The light had struck. He was gone for more than an hour and his editorial mates began to worry. Finally he trudged back into the editorial room, his head on his wishbone. "Where were you all this time?" shouted the deskman to relieve the tension. "Just out," he replied. "Just out to cool off, sir."

Lions Club President Honored at Party

A surprise birthday party for President Edward J. Sweeney highlighted last night's meeting of the Pottstown Lions club in the Eagles Home association building.

During the past week, club members mailed birthday greetings to the Eagles home, and these were read at the meeting.

Also, all other members recently celebrating birthdays were presented gifts from the club. Each of the 55 members last night brought a small gift for Sweeney.

The meeting was one of the club's four annual "open meetings," at which members are invited to discuss any club problems which have arisen.

The discussion centered on the operation of the club and club procedure.

Arrangements were in charge of H. Rohland Dorang.

Stanley Landis Home From Hospital

SKIPPAK—Mrs. Wm. Kirk, R. D. 1, Collegeville, Cor. Phone Collegeville 6000, H. Hobbs, del., Phone Pottstown 2100.

Stanley Landis has returned to his home after undergoing a tonsillectomy at Montgomery hospital. He recently received a medical discharge from the Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brader and family, who resided in the Nilsson apartments for several years, have moved into their new home on Store road. Mrs. Brader still must use crutches to get around.

Kitty Hilles recently entertained 25 of her classmates of the Tenth grade at Collegeville-Trappe High school, Collegeville. Among the guests were Dottie Lou Shisler of Oley.

Recent callers at the home of Mrs. Ida Metz were Mr. and Mrs. Abram Alderfer, of Prospect park, and Clayton Alderfer, of Hatfield.

Vocational Guidance Stressed by Speaker

The importance of vocational guidance in today's educational programs was unveiled to Kiwanians last night by a State guidance official.

Dr. Harvey A. Heintzelman, chairman of occupational information and guidance, department of public instruction, Harrisburg, told 66 members and 15 guests, meeting in the Elks' home, what guidance is doing for today's youth.

He asserted guidance by impartial counselors, and counselors excelled in their business is one of the reasons for the success of the State program.

Dr. Heintzelman said 40 percent of a number of boys and girls interviewed indicated they would like to enter a profession.

Of the 40 percent, 25 percent thought they could successfully complete courses required for the profession of their choice. Only 18 percent actually qualified for the profession.

Heintzelman used the illustration to prove the need for vocational guidance.

President William D. Mower was in charge, and C. Roy Bush, headed the program.

Mrs. Lamberg Has Guest From Trooper

SKIPPAK—Mrs. Wm. Kirk, R. D. 1, Collegeville, Cor. Phone Collegeville 6000, H. Hobbs, del., Phone Pottstown 2100.

Paul Ziegler spent a few days in Sullivan county, turkey hunting.

Topse Schillow, of Elkins Park, was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Schillow, of Forty-Foot road.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Hilles and daughters were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klink, of Oak Park.

OPENS OFFICE—Dr. Vincent J. Roach, a graduate of the Temple University school of dentistry, recently opened an office at 372 High street.

Dr. Roach has completed a two-year tour of duty as a dentist in the Air Force, returning this past Summer from England. He is a member of the American Dental Association, and the Sigma Epsilon Dental fraternity. With his wife and son, he is making his home at 803 Spruce street.

2D CRASH VICTIM BLIZZARD — DIES OF INJURIES

Swamp Pike Mishap
Claims Life of
Driver

The head-on crash on foggy Swamp pike the past Saturday night cost a second life yesterday. Walter C. Zimmerman, 28-year-old Norristown man, driver of one of the two cars, died yesterday morning at 5:15 o'clock in Pottstown hospital.

The Montgomery county coroner's office listed a fractured skull as the primary cause of death but noted that he also had suffered internal injuries and a crushed chest and had severe gashes of the face and knees.

There will be an inquest into the highway tragedy, the coroner's office reported — possibly Tuesday or Wednesday, depending largely on when the other driver, John L. Vogt, 43, of 59 West Fourth street, can be released from the hospital.

Vogt's wife, Geraldine, died in the crash.

Vogt was reported as "doing fairly well" yesterday in Pottstown hospital, as were Marjorie Vogt, 9, who is his youngest daughter, and Mrs. Patricia Seyler, 21, a married daughter, of 118 North Keim street. Jeffersonville State police said after their preliminary investigation it appeared that Zimmerman's car had been on the wrong side of Swamp pike when the crash occurred near Gilbertsville.

Zimmerman's body was released to a funeral home in Norristown. No autopsy was scheduled.

SKIPACK—Mrs. Wm. Kirk, RD 1, Collegeville, Cor. Phone Collegeville 1986 H. Hobbs, del. Phone Pottstown 1000.

The annual meeting and ingathering of garments of the Skipack Branch, Needlework Guild of America, will be held at the fire-house tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. The speaker for the evening will be Julia Martin, representing Christ's Home, Warmminster.

A cordial invitation is issued to everyone in the community, to attend this meeting and learn about the work of the Needlework Guild.

CONSTIPATED? Here's good news from Edward E. Young of Olean, N. Y.

"I can't afford to lose any time at work. But when I was constipated, I just couldn't work because no laxative gave me the relief I wanted."

"Then a friend told me about Sal Hepatica. So I took some the next time I woke up with that headachy, lopy feeling due to constipation. And, let me tell you, it was just what I was looking for. Why I felt like my old self again within about an hour!"

Yes, take sparkling Sal Hepatica before breakfast and feel fine again . . . usually within an hour. Or, take it in the evening one-half hour before supper and feel fine again, by bedtime! Sweetens sour stomach, too! So keep Sal Hepatica handy in your medicine chest.

Santa Claus, in addition to greeting all his little friends at his Toyland headquarters at Hess Brothers, shows them the wondrous delights of his kingdom on the fourth floor of the Allentown department store. Among these is the careful of long-pictured above.

Joe the Lion stands in all his animal majesty looking over the scene while Lena the Lioness rests and their cubs, Lippy, Lappy and Louie, act up like all youngsters do. Each of the animals in the cage is animated and adults as well as children cluster round the cage to "oh" and "ah" at the lionine capers.

And round and about this menagerie are the thousands of little and big toys that make the eyes of children light up like the twinkling stars on Christmas trees. All that is needed to make a child's Christmas complete may be found in Santa's headquarters in Hess's Toyland on the fourth floor.

Children may also have their pictures taken with Santa as he greets them while seated on his throne.

Santa's influence has spread throughout the store, making each floor a veritable wonderland of color and animation in keeping with the holiday spirit. Thrill Maker from start to stop

SOMETIME soon — like this week — you ought to try a Buick with Twin-Turbine Dynaflo.*

You ought to try it just to be familiar with the great advance in this fully automatic transmission that Buick engineers have accomplished.

You ought to try it just for the fun of bossing a drive where you don't do a blessed thing but steer and press the gas or the brake pedal as you go.

But, pure and simple, you ought to try it for thrills.

We mean the thrill of instant getaway response—with two turbines doing the job that one did before.

We mean the thrill of whisper-quiet acceleration — where you barely hear the sound of power build-up, or of flowing oil at work.

And, most emphatically, we mean the thrill of perfect and sublime smoothness from start to stop — the thrill of moving from standstill to and through all travel ranges in one, progressive, infinitely smooth forward "carry" without a gear ever shifting or a clutch-pedal pushed—the thrill, rarely found elsewhere, of silky smoothness in deceleration, too.

Will you be our guest at a sampling of a Buick with TT Dynaflo?

Will you try the sweetest, the smoothest and the simplest-to-operate automatic transmission yet devised — and powered by the highest-compression engines in Buick history, including the world's newest V8 in SUPER and ROADMASTER models?

Drop in on us this week and we'll be happy to accommodate you.

2D CRASH VICTIM DIES OF INJURIES

Swamp Pike Mishap
Claims Life of
Driver

The head-on crash on foggy Swamp pike the past Saturday night cost a second life yesterday. Walter C. Zimmerman, 28-year-old Norristown man, driver of one of the two cars, died yesterday morning at 5:15 o'clock in Pottstown hospital.

The Montgomery county coroner's office listed a fractured skull as the primary cause of death but noted that he also had suffered internal injuries and a crushed chest and had severe gashes of the face and knees.

There will be an inquest into the highway tragedy, the coroner's office reported — possibly Tuesday or Wednesday, depending largely on when the other driver, John L. Vogt, 43, of 59 West Fourth street, can be released from the hospital.

Vogt's wife, Geraldine, died in the crash.

Vogt was reported as "doing fairly well" yesterday in Pottstown hospital, as were Marjorie Vogt, 9, who is his youngest daughter, and Mrs. Patricia Seyler, 21, a married daughter, of 118 North Keim street. Jeffersonville State police said after their preliminary investigation it appeared that Zimmerman's car had been on the wrong side of Swamp pike when the crash occurred near Gilbertsville.

Zimmerman's body was released to a funeral home in Norristown. No autopsy was scheduled.

Juvenile Grange Officers To Be Installed Tonight

Fourteen officers of the Sanatoga Juvenile Grange will be installed at the meeting of the adult Grange tonight.

Mrs. Adelaide Stringer, former lecturer of the Pomona Grange and member of Keystone Grange, Trappe, will be installing officer.

Mrs. Vernon Rapp is matron of the juvenile group at Sanatoga. During the lecturer's program, Mrs. Betty Rahn, chaplain, will present a Thanksgiving program of recitations, readings and music.

About 13 million autos built before World War II are still in use in the United States.

to spade up their gardens. "I'll give the frost a chance to make the ground easy to work next Spring if you leave it rough over the Winter," one gardener explained.

So the pleasant warmth of the day brought a little cheer to almost everyone.

Only the merchants with heavy inventories of overcoats on hand took a dim view of the Spring-like interlude.

Early in the morning you wouldn't have thought it was going to be such a balmy day. Temperatures were below 40 degrees until 7 a. m.

But by 11 a. m. the mercury was up to a comfortable 60. From then until 5 p. m. it stayed well above that mark.

It was quite a change, with the temperature zooming from a low of 37 at 6 a. m. to 67 at 2 p. m.—a difference of 30 degrees in a few hours.

Of course, yesterday didn't seriously threaten the record high of 73 degrees for the day, set back in 1928.

But it was warm enough for most people.

Today looks like another pleasant one, with sunny and warm weather predicted. Temperatures are likely to be even higher than yesterday. A high of 68 to 72 is in prospect.

Tomorrow will be cloudy but still rather warm.

Girl Scout Group Holds Meeting at Phoenixville Home

The executive committee of the North district of Chester county Girl Scouts held its business meeting at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Joseph Eley, of Phoenixville. Mrs. Eley relayed the thanks of the Community Chest for the part Girl Scouts played in the recent drive.

The North district annual meeting will be held at Free-dom's Foundation on Jan. 11. Committee chairmen were named for the meeting.

Preliminary plans were announced for the 1934 day camp for the district.

Mrs. William Reiff told some of her impressions of the national convention held in October.

Those attending included Naomi Bastushek, Mrs. John Eldridge, Ethel Longacre, Mrs. John McCoy, Mrs. Richard Schwab, Mrs. Reiff, Mrs. William Weist, Corrine Duffy, Mrs. B. F. Summerfield and Mrs. Charles Ludwick.

Skipack Branch to Hold Ingathering of Garments

The annual meeting and ingathering of garments of the Skipack Branch, Needlework Guild of America, will be held at the firehouse tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. The speaker for the evening will be Julia Martin, representing Christ's Home, Westminster.

A cordial invitation is issued to everyone in the community, to attend this meeting and learn about the work of the Needlework Guild.

CONSTIPATED?

"I can't afford to lose any time at work. But when I was constipated, I just couldn't work because no laxative gave me the relief I wanted."

"Then a friend told me about Sal Hepatica. So I took some the next time I woke up with that headachy, lopy feeling due to constipation. And, let me tell you, it was just what I was looking for. Why I felt like my old self again within about an hour!"

Yes, take sparkling Sal Hepatica before breakfast and feel fine again . . . usually within an hour. Or, take it in the evening one-half hour before supper and feel fine again by bedtime! Sweetens sour stomach, too! So keep Sal Hepatica handy in your medicine chest.

A turkey supper will be served in the basement of St. Paul's Union Church on Saturday, Nov. 21, beginning at 3:30 p. m.

The Society of Farm Women held a meeting at the home of Mrs. C. Harry Schafer. The president, Pearl Levegood, had charge of the business meeting. Those answering roll call were: Esther Andersen, Elsie Badrow, Lydia Cleaver, Anna Guenther, Emma McLean, Melanie Pfueller, Sara Schlegel, Kathryn Spotts, Ella Thompson, Mabel Weidner, Catharine Yanos, the president and the hosts.

Plans were made to meet with the Bethel group on Tuesday evening, Nov. 24 at Bethel.

A report was given on an educational trip to the largest bakery in Philadelphia. The group taking the trip were: Melanie Pfueller, Anna Guenther, Elsie Badrow, Pearl Levegood, Catharine Yanos, Marian Haas and Sara Marsteller.

A committee of three teachers of Amity High school selected the following cheer leaders: Senior varsity: Barbara Gilbert, Dolly Grim, Carole Filbert, Shirley Wampole, Marilyn Focht, and Nancy Angstadt. Junior varsity: Dolly Kuser, Joanne High, Shirley Wade, Anne Marks, Nancy Shunk, and Helen Angstadt. Substitutes: Roberta Levegood and Marlene Whitacre.

The flowers in the altar vases for St. Paul's Lutheran church services were placed by Charles S. Rhoads in memory of his parents,

Mr. and Mrs. William Rhoads and sister, Katie.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brown of Harrisburg, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham, of Hershey, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. Harry Schafer.

Rev. John B. Frantz Participates in Parley

The Rev. John B. Frantz pastor of Trinity Reformed church and vice president of the Philadelphia synod, attended the theological convocation at Temple university, Philadelphia, yesterday morning.

The local pastor helped to welcome Dr. Frank C. Laubach, widely known missionary teacher, to Philadelphia.

During the program beginning at 11 o'clock, Dr. Laubach received an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Dr. Robert L. Johnson, president of the university.

India Missionary To Lecture Before Women of Church

The Rev. H. H. Moyer, missionary to India and representative to the Lutheran World conference, held at Hanover, Germany, the past year, will speak and illustrate his lecture with slides at the regular meeting of the Women of the Church on Tuesday evening, Nov. 24.

All residents of the community have been invited to attend this meeting, also the women of Trinity church, Bechtelsville, and the Ladies' aid of Christ Reformed, Nanticoke.

On Nov. 29 the women will present a pageant at their annual thank offering service at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Stanley Latshaw and Mrs. John Guinther are in charge of the program. This service will also terminate the month-long drive for used clothing for Lutheran World relief.

An important congregational meeting will be held following the Sunday morning service at 10:15 o'clock on Nov. 29. All members are urged to attend. The Every Member Visitation will take place by the Church council during this month.

Too the Lion stands in all his animal majesty looking over the scene while Lena the Lioness rests and their cubs, Lippy, Lappy and Louie, act up like all youngsters do. Each of the animals in the cage is animated and adults as well as children cluster round the cage to "oh" and "ah" at the leonine capers.

And round and about this menagerie are the thousands of little and big toys that make the eyes of children light up like the twinkling stars on Christmas trees. All that is needed to make a child's Christmas complete may be found in Santa's headquarters in Hess's Toyland on the fourth floor.

Children may also have their pictures taken with Santa as he greets them while seated on his throne.

Santa's influence has spread throughout the store, making each floor a veritable wonderland of color and animation in keeping with the holiday spirit. Animated toys are on display on various floors and there is a complete Trim the Tree department on the fourth floor, a Christmas Card Shop on the second floor plus all the makings for beautiful Christmas wrappings of gifts, and the one-of-a-kind Boutique—"Little Shop"—where the unique, the unusual gift is available.

WOMAN HONORED AT BRIDAL PARTY Committees Named To Plan Christmas Programs at Church

Shower Takes Place At Boyertown Home

A surprise bridal shower, in honor of Lillian Shafer, Hosensack, was held at the home of Mrs. Melvin Babb, 26 Mill street, Boyertown. Co-hostess with Mrs. Babb for the shower was Miss Shafer's sister, Mrs. Florence Bartholomew.

Miss Shafer will become the bride of Curtis Babb, Macungie RD 1, on Saturday, Nov. 28.

Yellow and white streamers were tied to the chandelier, under which a huge red bell was hung. The streamers were attached to each gift which Miss Shafer received.

Those attending were Mrs. William Swavely and son, William Jr., Mrs. Edwin Shafer, Mrs. Helen Babb, Mrs. Elizabeth Giles, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mutter and sons Richard and Warren Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Babb, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Eppler and daughter Karen, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rothenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rubendall, and son Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman Leister and son Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bartman and children Rose Marie, Robert and Vicki, Mrs. Ralph Benfield and daughter Judy, Elwood Johnson, Curtis Babb, Melvin Babb and sons John and Randall and Mrs. Bartholomew.

Sending a gift but unable to attend was Dolores Scheier.

Several Christmas committees have been announced to prepare for the holiday season by the congregation of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Evangelical and Reformed, Boyertown.

The committee, making plans for the annual children's Christmas program to be presented Sunday, Dec. 20 at 3 p. m. in the church sanctuary, is comprised of Mrs. Daniel Bush, Marie Landis, Betty Landis, Clarence Poetter and William Brumbach.

The Christmas decorating committee, in charge of the entire church decorations, consists of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shollenberger, Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Harner, Mrs. Mary Angstadt, Elmer Haring, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Youse, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Rhoads, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Landis, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Hoch, Clayton Reinert, Jesse Mercer.

Mrs. Ernest Weidner, Mr. and Mrs. Purnell Renninger, Ruth Edinger, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bush, Curtis Herb, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Miller, Gerald Toms, Clarence Poetter, Betty Landis, Marie Landis, Mrs. Mervin Gaudler, Mrs. Edith Reiff, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kershner, Mrs. Mabel Engle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Landis, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Renninger, William Reifsnnyder and Thomas Moyer.

A fundamental law of consumption is that the poorer the family the larger the proportion of its income which is spent for food.

Reformed Church Pastor Attending State Parley

The Rev. Harper L. Schneck, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Evangelical and Reformed, Boyertown, is presently attending the Pennsylvania State Pastors' conference being held at Harrisburg. He will return home tonight.

The Rev. Schneck, who is one of the delegates representing the Reading Synod at the conference, left yesterday.

Speakers listed for the sessions include the Rev. Dr. George A. Buttrick, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Rev. Dr. Liston Pope, and the Rev. Dr. James H. Robinson are a few of the many speakers and discussion leaders.

EDEN RAPS SOVIETS

LONDON, Nov. 17 (P)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden said today Russia never has given serious consideration to world atomic control or disarmament. He refuted suggestions the Soviet attitude has changed since Stalin's death.

FOR SEVEN years ending in 1950, Mrs. Burdan was head of the social service department at Valley Forge Army hospital (then General hospital) near Phoenixville. In Pottstown, she is superintendent of the Senior department director for a year of the entire of Emmanuel Lutheran Sunday Red Cross unit. Her responsibilities, a member of that church's ties were recreation and secretarial choir and a member of the Pottstown Soroptimist club.

From 1950 until she took the post at Embreeville on Oct. 1, 1952, she was supervisor of home service for town RD 1.

She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bloomfield Weidner, Pottstown.

She is a member of the American Association of Psychiatric Social Workers; the American Association of Medical Social Workers; the Pennsylvania Welfare conference; the National Conference of Social Work, and the Perkiomen University Women.

WELFARE SOCIETY

In 1944, she received her master's degree in social work from the Pennsylvania School of Social Work, a graduate school of the University of Pennsylvania.

Since 1945, she has been a field supervisor for the graduate school. She now has a student from the graduate school in training with her at Embreeville State hospital. Since the in-service training she is giving the student must continue until the end of May, Mrs. Burdan will not be able to accept the Welfare post until then.

Young Area Farmer Will Tour Maryland Agriculture Station

A young North Coventry farmer who hasn't let any fence rows grow under his feet is being rewarded for his conservation efforts.

Richard Moyer, sophomore at Norco High school, is on a two-day visit to the Federal Agriculture station at Beltsville, Md., with a group of Chester county and New Castle county, Del., agriculture experts.

He earned the trip for the best conservation project of the Norco Future Farmers of America (FFA) competition of his freshman year.

The Brandywine Valley association sponsored the trip for winners from each FFA chapter in the two counties.

The group arrived in Washington yesterday and today will visit the Department of Agriculture.

For his winning effort Moyer outlined a thorough conservation program for the Sheep hill (Pottstown RD 2) farm of his father, Harry Moyer.

The father and son team laid out the entire farm in contour strips, eliminated wasteful fence rows and built a pond for fire protection.

Footing expenses for the trip is the Chester County Bankers association.

Young agrarians will make the junket by car. They are expected to return tonight.

Fellowships Started By Barium Steel

The parent firm of Jacobs Aircraft Engine company, Barium Steel corporation, announced yesterday that the corporation has established three graduate fellowships for advanced studies in engineering.

J. A. Sisto, chairman of the board, said, "It is my sincere hope that all qualified students, especially the sons and daughters of our employees at Jacobs Aircraft Engine company or our nearby affiliates in Phoenixville, Phoenix Iron and Steel company and Phoenix Bridge company, as well as our 13 other companies, will apply for these graduate scholarships."

Grants for one-year fellowships will be made each year to Massachusetts Institute of Technology, in mechanical engineering; the University of Pennsylvania, in metallurgy; and Case Institute of Technology, in electrical engineering.

Having two finished bedrooms in the expansion attic give Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Stouch plenty of room in this home of theirs at 972 Terrace lane. Since the house was built three years ago, there also has been the addition of shrubbery and rose bushes.

Downstairs are the living room (at left), two bedrooms, bath and kitchen. There's a full cellar. Stouch is a production worker for Firestone Tire and Rubber company.

The earth contains about 197 million square miles.

Collegeville Pair Are Given Awards For Scouting Efforts

Two Collegeville men were given awards Monday for contributing to the success of the recent Scouting fair at Devon.

They were S. Louis Cornish and Henry B. Brown, booth and ticket committee chairmen for the Continental district.

The awards were presented by Robert C. Yoder, chairman of the Continental district, at the district meeting in the Howard Johnson restaurant.

Some 86,000 persons attended the Scouting Fair, it was reported, and the Continental district was fourth in ticket sales in the Valley Forge Council area.

Robert G. Weller, district activities chairman, reported on the district Scouters dinner to be held tomorrow at Ursinus college. He said that 270 reservations have been made—more than in any previous year.

Extension Chairman Waverly Kiehl reported on membership. He said the district now has 435

Cub Scouts, 431 Boy Scouts, 128 Explorers in troops and 55 Explorers in posts.

D. E. Story, public relations chairman, reported the gift of a record player from the Firestone store. It will be used for training purposes, he explained.

It is estimated there are 78 million motor vehicles in use throughout the world.

Collegeville Pair Are Given Awards For Scouting Efforts

Two Collegeville men were given awards Monday for contributing to the success of the recent Scouting fair at Devon.

They were S. Louis Cornish and Henry B. Brown, booth and ticket committee chairmen for the Continental district.

The awards were presented by Robert C. Yoder, chairman of the Continental district, at the district meeting in the Howard Johnson restaurant.

Some 86,000 persons attended the Scouting Fair, it was reported, and the Continental district was fourth in ticket sales in the Valley Forge Council area.

Robert G. Weller, district activities chairman, reported on the district Scouters dinner to be held tomorrow at Ursinus college. He said that 270 reservations have been made—more than in any previous year.

Extension Chairman Waverly Kiehl reported on membership. He said the district now has 435

Cub Scouts, 431 Boy Scouts, 128 Explorers in troops and 55 Explorers in posts.

D. E. Story, public relations chairman, reported the gift of a record player from the Firestone store. It will be used for training purposes, he explained.

It is estimated there are 78 million motor vehicles in use throughout the world.

Here is proof of the greatest scientific discovery in toothpaste history—proof that Colgate Dental Cream with Gardol*, Colgate's exclusive, new, miracle ingredient, gives lasting protection against tooth-decay enzymes!

ONLY NEW COLGATE DENTAL CREAM HAS THE CLINICAL PROOF that brings new hope to millions for Lifetime Protection Against Tooth Decay!

Actual use by hundreds of people has proved the long-lasting protection of New Colgate Dental Cream with Gardol! Tests supervised by leading dental authorities—for a full year—proved this protection won't rinse off, won't wear off! Proved just daily morning and night use guards against decay-causing enzymes every minute of the day and night!

NOW you can get New Colgate Dental Cream—the only toothpaste with clinical proof of long-lasting protection against decay-causing enzymes! The only toothpaste in the world with amazing new miracle ingredient, Gardol!

LABORATORY EXAMINATIONS of hundreds of people have proved that New Colgate Dental Cream with Gardol acts immediately to prevent the formation of tooth-decay enzymes—gives you the most complete long-lasting protection against tooth decay ever reported. Because Gardol's protection won't rinse off or wear off all day, just ordinary daily use—morning and night—guards against tooth decay every minute of the day and night!

CLINICAL TESTS on over nine hundred people were conducted for a full year under the supervision of some of the country's leading dental authorities. Results showed the greatest reduction in tooth decay in toothpaste history—proved that most people should now have far fewer cavities than ever before! And similar clinical tests are continuing—to further verify these amazing results!

Yes, clinical and laboratory tests both prove it! New Colgate Dental Cream with Gardol, used regularly and exclusively, offers new hope to millions for Lifetime Protection against tooth decay!

No Other Toothpaste Offers Proof of Such Results!

A JURY OF DISTINGUISHED DENTISTS HAS EXAMINED THE EVIDENCE! Documented facts, recently published in an authoritative dental journal, have convinced these dentists that Colgate Dental Cream with Gardol is far more effective against decay-causing enzymes than any other toothpaste. And because Gardol is the only long-lasting anti-enzyme ingredient with clinical proof, these dental authorities agree that New Colgate's with Gardol gives the surest protection against tooth decay ever offered by any toothpaste.

Rena Tiernan, Robert Pollock Exchange Vows At Morning Ceremony in St. Aloysius Church

White chrysanthemums and ferns decorated the altar in St. Aloysius Catholic church for the marriage of Rena M. Tiernan and Robert A. Pollock. The Rev. Michael Leo Walsh performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Tiernan Sr., 151 High street. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Lindenmuth, Pottstown RD 2, are the parents of the groom.

Mrs. Robert Kurtz was the organist. The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. She wore a gown of lustrous rose point chantilly lace over gossamer satin. The strapless sheath dress had a tulip basque bodice and a parasol skirt.

Worn with the gown was a spencer jacket featuring a pearl collar, buttons down the front and long tapering sleeves.

A queen's coronet enhanced with iridescent and pearls held her court length veil edged in lace matching that on her gown. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of flowers.

The bride's sister, Mrs. John Dorang, 127 Walnut street, attended her as matron of honor. She wore a gown of green velvet and nylon tulle styled with a tulip bodice and graduated skirt of tiered flounces. A Queen Elizabeth collar adorned the velvet shawl. Matching mitts and a queen type headpiece completed her ensemble.

Edward J. Tiernan Jr., brother of the bride, 127 Walnut street, acted as best man. Ushers were Kenneth Ingham, 518 Beech street, and Paul Pollock, 238 Beech street, the groom's brother.

Immediately after the 11 a. m. ceremony a wedding luncheon was held at Lakeside Inn for the wedding party and members of the family. This was followed by a reception at 238 Beech street, the home of the groom's brother and his wife. Mrs. Paul Pollock was hostess.

The bride's mother was dressed in navy blue and the groom's mother, purple. The both wore white mum corsages.

To begin their wedding trip to Florida the bride changed to a pink faille suit with a rhinestone trimmed collar. A pink hat, beige coat and brown accessories completed her outfit. She wore an orchid corsage. The couple will make their home in Pensacola, Fla., where Mr. Pollock is stationed with the Air Force.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Pollock were graduated from North Coventry High school. Prior to her marriage the bride was employed as a bookkeeper at the Security Trust company.

Daughters, Sons Return Home to Mark The Jacob Scholl's 57th Anniversary

"I don't feel a bit older," said Mrs. Jacob Scholl on the eve of her 57th wedding anniversary, "But when you look around at all the children and grandchildren you have to imagine that you are."

Tomorrow marks more than one special occasion for the Scholls. In addition to being their wedding anniversary it is also Mr. Scholl's 83 birthday.

Daughters of the Pottstown RD 2 couple, Mrs. Ambrose Malenke, Mrs. Grace Miller and Mrs. Wilmer Hahn, are returning home to cook dinner for their parents on this very special occasion.

Also present for the celebration will be John R. Scholl, Mr. Scholl's brother, Leon Scholl, who traveled all the way from Texas to be present for his parents' anniversary, and Chester Scholl, the couple's other son.

Mr. and Mrs. Scholl were born and brought up within two and a half miles of each other. They were married at Mrs. Scholl's home in East Coventry. She is the former Annie E. Grubb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton P. Grubb.

Mrs. Scholl's hobby is raising flowers, both inside her home, and outside, in the garden.

Mr. Scholl was in business for himself as a farmer. After he retired they sold the land built their home nearby, at their present address, Pottstown RD 2.

The couple have 15 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

"I don't feel a bit older," said Mrs. Jacob Scholl on the eve of her 57th wedding anniversary. "But when you look around at all the children and grandchildren you have to imagine that you are."

Tomorrow marks more than one special occasion for the Scholls. In addition to being their wedding anniversary it is also Mr. Scholl's 83 birthday.

Daughters of the Pottstown RD 2 couple, Mrs. Ambrose Malenke, Mrs. Grace Miller and Mrs. Wilmer Hahn, are returning home to cook dinner for their parents on this very special occasion.

Also present for the celebration will be John R. Scholl, Mr. Scholl's brother, Leon Scholl, who traveled all the way from Texas to be present for his parents' anniversary, and Chester Scholl, the couple's other son.

Mr. and Mrs. Scholl were born and brought up within two and a half miles of each other. They were married at Mrs. Scholl's home in East Coventry. She is the former Annie E. Grubb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton P. Grubb.

Mrs. Scholl's hobby is raising flowers, both inside her home, and outside, in the garden.

Mr. Scholl was in business for himself as a farmer. After he retired they sold the land built their home nearby, at their present address, Pottstown RD 2.

The couple have 15 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Women of the Moose Hear Talk Given By Freda Gloss, Pottstown Librarian

Various facilities of the Pottstown Library were discussed by Freda Gloss in her talk to the members of the Women of the Moose.

Miss Gloss, Pottstown librarian, told the women that the Pottstown unit has 15,000 books in stock, that it has subscriptions to 55 magazines and that it operates a telephone reference service.

It's stock of books in the reference department originally belonged to the Casselbury estate library.

Ethel Sides, chairman of the library committee, arranged the program.

"Pig-in-the-box" prizes were awarded to Mabel Bower and Mrs. Mary Polkinhorn. Mabel Bower was also the recipient of a special prize.

During the business session three important dates were announced: Nov. 25, executive board meeting at 7:30 p. m. in the Moose hall; Dec. 17, club Christmas party at 8:30 p. m. in the Moose hall; Christmas party for members' children and grandchildren, Dec. 27 in the Moose hall.

Church Groups Schedule Project, Name Committee

Members of the Dorcas society of the Lutheran congregation and the Ladies Aid society of the Reformed congregation, Amityville, are combining their efforts in a joint project this month.

General committee members include: Mrs. George Brown, Harvey Rhoads, Mrs. Evelyn Rhoads and Ellsworth Kutz.

Other project members Nellie Brown, Alice Kutz, George Thompson, Dorothy Body, Sarah Marsteller, Herbert Weiss, W. S. S. Kutz, William Martin, Jacob Moser, the Rev. P. J. Dandore and the Rev. W. H. Solly.

Ester Kutz, Stella Baker, Alice Body, Eva Reider, Minnie Rhoads, Mrs. Annie Baker and Ellsworth Kutz.

George Thompson is president of the joint congregations.

Per capita beef consumption in the United States rose from 55 pounds in 1951 to an estimated record 75 pounds in 1953.

At the business meeting, held in the church house officers for 1954 were elected. The results are as follows: Grace McGaughey, president; Mrs. William Ebert, first vice-president; Mrs. Carson Potter, second vice-president; Mrs. John Lacey, secretary, and Mrs. Linwood Decker was re-elected treasurer.

Previous to the meeting, circle 5 served dessert. The committee in charge included Mrs. Willard Sensenig, Mrs. William Ebert, Mrs. Horace Skean and Mrs. Leonard Ebert.

At the meeting, held at 1:30 p. m. in the church house, the following chairmen were decided upon for the Dec. 11 project: Mrs. William Barr, Mrs. Ross Longaker, Mrs. Stella Morrison, Mrs. William Yohn and Mrs. Harry Shope.

As a surprise feature of the meeting, Edmund Wills, six-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. T. Edmund Wills, played several selections on the piano.

The Rev. John Frantz, pastor of the Trinity Reformed church, gave a devout Thanksgiving message on stewardship.

Dec. 8 is the date set for their next meeting featuring a musical program and art exhibit. Members will bring gifts for children's village, Philadelphia.

'Every Member Visitation' Conducted

More than 100 members of Grace Lutheran church are conducting an "every member visitation" in the parish this week.

The workers will ask each family of the congregation for greater devotion to the church in the months ahead, in an effort to make 1954 "the greatest year in the history of Grace church."

One aim of the visitation is to urge every member to receive the Sacrament of the Altar on Advent Sunday, Nov. 29.

"Reception of the Sacrament will be the initial act of devotion for each member as he prepares to enter this great year in the history of Grace church," the Rev. Edgar S. Brown Jr., pastor, explained.

MEMBERS will be asked to sign a pledge card carried by the visitors, promising attendance at the Communion and other services, and giving of financial support to the church.

Visitors taking part in the annual stewardship program are divided into 12 teams, each headed by a vestryman.

They were commissioned by the pastor on Sunday morning during the 10:30 o'clock service.

The 12 teams include:

Elmer Keck, captain, Mrs. Elmer Keck, Jennon Kepner, Mrs. Jennon Kepner, Harry Highley, Mrs. Harry Highley, Charles Jacob, Mrs. Charles Jacob, Kenneth Jacob, Mrs. Kenneth Jacob, Miriam Keck, Walter Jackson, Mrs. Walter Jackson, Robert Lozenski, Mrs. Robert Lozenski.

Raymond Greiner captain, Mrs. Frances Weisser, Joyce Herrlinger, Harold Leh, Harold Kemp, Mrs. Cyrus Kulp.

Rufus Keck, captain, William Lightcap, Mrs. Eva Keifreider, Jesse Houck, Mrs. Robert Sloan, Mark Henricks.

Lewis Kirby, captain, Russell Graham, Mrs. Lewis Kirby, Mrs. Helen Brendlinger, Mrs. Wilbert Mock, Mrs. Morris Houck, Morris Houck.

William Roth, captain, Mrs. Harold Binder, William Bertolet, Mrs. William Bertolet, Clarence Hollinger, Mrs. Clarence Hollinger, George Gauger, Mrs. George Gauger, Mrs. Walter Dames, Mrs. Christopher Hollenbach.

Lester Bush, captain, Mrs. Lester Bush, Miss Emma Baker, Earl Elliott, Mrs. Harold Sloan, Curtis Borneman.

Joseph Hutt, captain, Rhinard Moyer, Jacob Keeler, Gerald Yeger, Norman Schaffer.

Census taking in ancient times often was followed by conscription or high taxes and the process often was bitterly resisted.

Arrangements are in charge of Dr. C. Robert Elicker of Pottstown Hospital, and Dr. Jesse G. Hafer of Memorial.

County Association Reports 129 Fires

Grass fires outnumbered those of dwellings by 56 to 37 in Montgomery county in October, it was announced after the recent meeting of the county firemen's association.

Grass, brush and dump fires combined totaled 84, as against 50 for dwellings and automobiles combined.

Causes of almost one-third of the 129 fires during the month is unknown, the report said.

The largest number of known causes (14) were given as burning rubbish, with burning brush second.

W. H. Green, chief fire marshal, submitted the report.

The meeting in Gilbertsville firehouse was in charge of President George Lee. Twenty-five firemen attended.

The next meeting will be held at Jenkintown on Dec. 5.

Leaking Refrigerator Brings Fire Trucks

Firemen of two fire companies answered a call to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Murray, 1076 South street yesterday afternoon.

When they arrived they found a refrigerator giving off gas fumes. Both Murrays were at work when the faulty refrigerator was discovered by a bread delivery man.

Good Will and Empire Hook and Ladder companies removed the refrigerator and, with fans, sucked the fumes out of the home. No one was injured.

More than 65 million emigrants left Europe between 1820 and 1930.

Do You Remember?

Those grand old days when Pottstown and area was in its infancy—Here's another photo that may recapture a few moments of eternity for you, a picture to stir your memory and let you catch a glimpse of the past.

Here's the Pottstown AC football team of the early 1920's. The team played at Sanatoga park (where this photo was taken) and on Kerlin's field in South Pottstown. It had been rivalry with other semi-professional teams from Phoenixville and Royersford, among others. The photo was loaned by Grant Geist, 161 North Washington street. On

First row, a player whose name was Jenkins; Ed Diehm, Linwood Schlipf and Merle Miller.
Second row: George Ritter, Jake Beyers, Grant Geist, Albert "Betsy" Pollock, Joe Trate, Ambrose "Red" Gilbert (captain), W. Eady, William Troutman, Linwood Detwiler (mascot), Rick Keller, and Art Klouser (lineman).

Back row: Dr. David Cooley, team physician; Harold Squibb, Albert Webb, Ralph Galloway, Donald "Dutch" Seasholtz, Harry Holloway, manager; Henry Malsberger, a player whose last name was Kirk, H. B. "Bud" Smith and Carroll D. "Mush" Bechtel, coach.

Evangelist to Speak At Youth Centre

A two-week evangelistic campaign will be conducted at the Pottstown Youth center starting Saturday night at 7:45 o'clock.

The speaker will be Neil Macaulay, described as a "youth leader, radio speaker, international evangelist, world traveler, photographer, musician and missionary." Macaulay has a daily radio program on the "Voice of America" broadcast.

The meeting will be at 7:45 p. m. daily except Sunday, when they will be at 3 p. m. Stanley M. Hallman, director of the center, is in charge of local arrangements.

About 250 million people speak English as their primary language.

A photograph of Mrs. Russell E. Brunner, 542 Spruce street, inadvertently was placed next to the text of remarks by Clarence Brunner, 107 Chestnut street, in a news story on the United Fund in yesterday's Mercury.

Both Mrs. Russell Brunner and Mrs. Clarence Brunner endorsed the "lights on" house-to-house canvass made for the United Fund last night.

INJURIES PROVE FATAL

ALTOONA, Nov. 17 (AP)—Injuries suffered when struck by a car last night proved fatal today to Elias Gisewhite, about 65. H. L. Shope, the driver, told police Gisewhite stepped into the path of his vehicle.

Muhls Defeat Boyertown, 14-6

By BILL BRADLEY

A fighting Boyertown team played highly touted Muhlenberg township to a standstill during the first half of last night's game at Albright stadium, then fell apart in the last two quarters as the Muhls rolled on to their seventh victory this season, taking the Bears, 14-6.

Quarterback Greg Lignelli piled up 144 yards via the airways during the first half, but was stopped cold in the second and third quarters. The hard charging Muhlenberg line held Lignelli to five yards passing the last half.

Boyertown opened right up with six-pointer with only 4:07 gone in its aerial circus when Lignelli hit the opening stanza. Ralph Borne-Dave Erb on the opening play man's try for the extra point was from scrimmage with a nine-yard blocked.

The Muhls broke up the scoring threat after Erb had carried to the 12 when George Feltenberger, a thorn in Lignelli's side all night, intercepted the Bear ace's pass on the seven.

The Muhls were unable to move and Ron Schaeffer kicked out. Erb returned the boot to the 46. Lignelli was thrown back to Muhlenberg 39 and a play later, his own 35 on the next play and Lignelli hit Jim Heydt, who made three plays later the visitors were a beautiful catch, on the 17. On forced to kick.

The second period opened with Lignelli to Erb, who scored the Muhls on the Boyertown 46, around left end, was good for the thanks to a holding penalty. Don

Coatesville Looms as Dark Shadow On Trojans' Path to C-M Title

With the Ches-Mont league title at stake, the Pottstown High Trojans are trying their best to look no farther than Friday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock when they play Coatesville High.

On its record of eight straight losses, the Raiders would appear to have little to say about stopping the Trojans' pennant drive. But they will put eleven husky boys on the field and if they leave a few of their mistakes in the locker room they could send the Trojans back to Pottstown feeling mighty low.

Coach Heeb Meyers has been putting plenty of practice time into trying to improve his team's attack. A hard offensive scrimmage was conducted yesterday with a good defensive unit trying to halt the regulars.

Although Pottstown broke loose for three touchdowns against Bridgeport—something no other team has been about to do this season—it took a blocked kick and an interception deep in Dragon land to set the stage for two of the tallies.

Some of the Trojan's speedier backs like Howie Bedell or Carl Burns could make their coaches happy with a long touchdown run, something has been lacking from their offense all year.

After the loss to Norristown, Meyers made some important changes in his defense and since that time no team in the league has been able to gain more than 77 yards rushing against the Trojans. Several officials have commented to Meyers that he seems to be using the lightest defensive line in the league.

Stoudt's jump pass to Geiss carried to the Bear 31 and Scheid swept end to the 20. Pyle went the same route to the 10 and Geiss went over center to the five. The Muhls were held by the fine defensive work of Jesse Rothenberger, Bill Wolfrom and Duke Snyder, and were finally forced to the air. Erb stole Stoudt's pass at the goal line and came out to the 13 to stave off the drive.

TWO PLAYS LATER, Ron Boyer fumbled Lignelli's handoff and Ralph Cyphers recovered for the Muhls on the Bear's 13. But once again Boyertown threw up a strong defense, holding on the five.

With Greg handing off to Erb, Charley Fronheiser and Boyer, Boyertown drove up to its 25 where Lignelli's kick was blocked by Geiss and picked up by Cyphers who went to the 13. After being thrown back to the 18 on tackles by Ron Wasson and Wolfrom, Stoudt took to the air and tagged Feltenberger in the end zone for the Muhl's first tally. Cyphers' kick was good.

Lignelli went to the air in earnest with only a minute remaining in the half. He connected with a 31-yard toss to Erb, who made a spectacular leaping catch with two men on him, on the Muhl's 40, but two plays later the drive was stalled when Stoudt intercepted Lignelli's heave on his own 14 as the half ended.

The crowd of 1000 couldn't believe that the team that came out on the field for the third period was the same club that had battled the Muhls toe to toe throughout the first half. The charging line was gone, Lignelli couldn't hit and the Muhls forward wall was surging into the Bears backfield on nearly every play, rushing the passer, killing the aerial offense.

Boyertown was held to 11 yards rushing in the third quarter, as the Muhls opened up with Stoudt bootlegging, pitching out and keeping on the option to spark a drive down to the Boyertown 43. Schaeffer's punt was taken by Erb on his own five and he slipped and fell on the four.

The Bears were able to get as far as the 13, and then the breaks went against them. Lignelli's kick from his own 13 traveled about 30 yards—15 up and 15 down, and when the pignin stopped rolling, it was on the visitor's 19.

ONCE AGAIN, fine defensive play on the part of Rothenberger, and Erb stopped the Muhls on the 17. On fourth down, Feltenberger dropped Stoudt's pass in the end zone and the Bears took over, only to have Lignelli's toss intercepted by Feltenberger two plays later on the Boyertown 27.

Stoudt hit Eyrych on the 13, then passed to him again on the two, where Eyrych dove for the catch. Geiss carried to the goal line and with 2:26 to go in the quarter, Stoudt slipped over to make it 13-6. Cyphers' kick was good.

Golden Cubs Play Final Game Today At West Chester

The Pottstown Junior High Golden Cubs will be out to avenge a couple of setbacks this afternoon when they play West Chester Junior High on Wayne field in West Chester.

First of all, the Cubs of Coach Gene Kauler have an old score to settle from last year when the Blue and Steel team from Chester county handed the Pottstown eleven a 13-6 defeat, their first loss in 14 games.

The weather has been the other foe the Cubs hope to overcome today, since this game was twice postponed because of the "big snow." Predictions call for balmy weather today so it appears the local Junior High boys have hurried their first obstacle.

UNLIKE LAST SEASON when the Cubs went into their final game with a long unbeaten streak, the team this year holds a 3-2 record. But in the last two games, this year's edition has proved that potentially it can score with the best Kauler has turned out.

Against Rittenhouse Junior High, the Cubs established a PJHS record with a 43-7 win. That was the most points one of Kauler's teams has ever scored.

Since Captain Ken Wensel has been out of the lineup for the past three games, Bill Sandoe and Al Oliver have been the big ground gainers. Wensel suffered a severe hip injury and has not recovered to the point where it is safe for him to play.

Along with Sandoe and Oliver in the backfield are quarterback Lin Kressley and halfback John Artin.

Frank Waresak has been the top man in the Cubs forward wall. Game after game he has tackled and blocked in such a fashion that he is regarded as a fine high school prospect.

THE RETURN of Dave Nagy from the casualty list gives the Cubs added strength at end. He will be at the opposite terminal from Dan Dwinnick.

Carrying the load in the middle of the line are Waresak, Bob McIntock, Bill Zink and Tom Overholtzer. Don Blum is the offensive center and John Johnson does a rugged job at defensive end. Dick Hunter, who has capably relieved Kressley, plays safety on defense and Bob Freese also moved into the defensive secondary.

Charlie Melton and Andy Steele are the two West Chester backs who wrecked the Cubs last year and both are still spearheading another outstanding campaign for their squad.

Waresak and crew will have to stop this pair if the Cubs are to wind up the season with their fourth win.

Pirates in Good Shape

Spring City Hosts Wilson High in Postponed Game Today

The Spring City High-Wilson High game postponed from Saturday, Nov. 7, will be played today at 2:30 o'clock on the Pirates home field.

Neither team has had too much rest after playing and losing games the past weekend. The Pirates were unable to defend against a Boyertown passing barrage and dropped a 20-0 decision, when the Bears scored three touchdowns in the final five minutes.

Wilson also was defeated, bringing a four-game winning streak to a shocking halt as Muhlenberg township won the game, 21-0.

It doesn't take a Frank Leahy to know that the most important factor in winning football games is to score points. Coach Bud Cleveland has pondered many hours over his offensive plans in an effort to break a six-game scoreless streak.

THE PIRATES manage to move just so far and then something has always happened to stop the drives.

Blues Soccer Season Winds Up At Lawrenceville

The end of another season looms for the Hill varsity soccer team today as coach Bob Morgan takes his club to Lawrenceville for an afternoon game.

Captain Bill Andrews will lead the team for the final time from his outside left position. Morgan plans to use Bob McKean in place of Bob Jessup at center half in the only change from the starting lineup that defeated Haverford College jayvees the past weekend.

Muhls Defeat Boyertown, 14-6

By BILL BRADLEY

A fighting Boyertown team played highly touted Muhlenberg township to a standstill during the first half of last night's game at Albright stadium, then fell apart in the last two quarters as the Muhls rolled on to their seventh victory this season, taking the Bears, 14-6.

Quarterback Greg Lignelli piled up 144 yards via the airways during the first half, but was stopped cold in the second and third quarters. The hard charging Muhlenberg line held Lignelli to five yards passing the last half.

Boyertown opened right up with its aerial circus when Lignelli hit Dave Erb on the opening play from scrimmage with a nine-yard pass and Erb scampered 46 yards to the Muhls 14, where he was caught by Stu Pyle.

The Muhls broke up the scoring threat after Erb had carried to the 12 when George Feltenberger, a thorn in Lignelli's side all night, intercepted the Bear ace's pass on the seven.

The Muhls were unable to move and Ron Schaeffer kicked out. Erb returned the boot to the Muhlenberg 39 and a play later, Lignelli hit Jim Heydt, who made a beautiful catch, on the 17. On the next play, a screen pass from Lignelli to Erb, who scooted around left end, was good for the six-pointer with only 4:07 gone in the opening stanza. Ralph Borneman's try for the extra point was blocked.

With Frank Scheid and Roy Geiss doing the legwork, the Muhls drove down to the Bear's 30. The drive was halted when Charley Fronheiser and Ron Boyer smeared Scheid back on the 38.

ERB CARRIED Schaeffer's boot back to his own 25 and two plays later, Lignelli, on another screen pass, hit Erb on the Bear's 30 and Dave danced his way to the host's 46. Lignelli was thrown back to his own 35 on the next play and three plays later the visitors were forced to kick.

The second period opened with the Muhls on the Boyertown 46, thanks to a holding penalty. Don

POTTSTOWN MERCURY Sports

Stoudt's jump pass to Geiss carried to the Bear 31 and Scheid swept end to the 20. Pyle went the same route to the 10 and Geiss went over center to the five. The Muhls were held by the fine defensive work of Jesse Rothenberger, Bill Wolfom and Duke Snyder, and were finally forced to the air. Erb stole Stoudt's pass at the goal line and came out to the 13 to stave off the drive.

TWO PLAYS LATER, Ron Boyer fumbled Lignelli's handoff and Ralph Cyphers recovered for the Muhls on the Bear's 13. But once again Boyertown threw up a strong defense, holding on the five.

With Greg handing off to Erb, Charley Fronheiser and Boyer, Boyertown drove up to its 25 where Lignelli's kick was blocked by Geiss and picked up by Cyphers who went to the 13. After being thrown back to the 18 on tackles by Ron Wasson and Wolfom, Stoudt took to the air and tagged Feltenberger in the end zone for the Muhls' first tally. Cyphers' kick was good.

Lignelli went to the air in earnest with only a minute remaining in the half. He connected with a 31-yard toss to Erb, who made a spectacular leaping catch with two men on him, on the Muhls' 40, but two plays later the drive was stalled when Stoudt intercepted Lignelli's heave on his own 14 as the half ended.

The crowd of 1000 couldn't believe that the team that came out on the field for the third period was the same club that had battled the Muhls toe to toe throughout the first half. The charging line was gone, Lignelli couldn't hit and the Muhls forward wall was surging into the Bears backfield on nearly every play, rushing the passer, killing the aerial offense.

Boyertown was held to 11 yards rushing in the third quarter, as the Muhls opened up with Stoudt bootlegging, pitching out and keeping on the option to spark a drive down to the Boyertown 43. Schaeffer's punt was taken by Erb on his own five and he slipped and fell on the four.

The Bears were able to get as far as the 13, and then the breaks went against them. Lignelli's kick from his own 13 traveled about 30 yards—15 up and 15 down, and when the pigskin stopped rolling, it was on the visitor's 19.

ONCE AGAIN, fine defensive play on the part of Rothenberger, and Erb stopped the Muhls on the 17. On fourth down, Feltenberger dropped Stoudt's pass in the end zone and the Bears took over, only to have Lignelli's toss intercepted by Feltenberger two plays later on the Boyertown 27.

Stoudt hit Eyrych on the 13, then passed to him again on the two, where Eyrych dove for the catch. Geiss carried to the goal line and with 2:26 to go in the quarter, Stoudt slipped over to make it 13-6. Cyphers' kick was good.

Golden Cubs Play Final Game Today At West Chester

The Pottstown Junior High Golden Cubs will be out to avenge a couple of setbacks this afternoon when they play West Chester Junior High on Wayne field in West Chester.

First of all, the Cubs of Coach Gene Kauler have an old score to settle from last year when the Blue and Steel team from Chester county handed the Pottstown eleven a 13-6 defeat, their first loss in 14 games.

The weather has been the other foe the Cubs hope to overcome today, since this game was twice postponed because of the "big snow." Predictions call for balmy weather today so it appears the local Junior High boys have hurdled their first obstacle.

UNLIKE LAST SEASON when the Cubs went into their final game with a long unbeaten streak, this year's edition has proved that potentially it can score with the best Kauler has turned out.

Against Rittenhouse Junior High, the Cubs established a PJHS record with a 43-7 win. That was the most points one of Kauler's teams has ever scored.

Since Captain Ken Wensel has been out of the lineup for the past three games, Bill Sandoe and Al Oliver have been the big ground gainers. Wensel suffered a severe hip injury and has not recovered to the point where it is safe for him to play.

Along with Sandoe and Oliver in the backfield are quarterback Lin Kressley and halfback John Artim.

Frank Waresak has been the top man in the Cubs forward wall. Game after game he has tackled and blocked in such a fashion that he is regarded as a fine high school prospect.

THE RETURN of Dave Nagy from the casualty list gives the Cubs added strength at end. He will be at the opposite terminal from Dan Dwinchick.

Carrying the load in the middle of the line are Waresak, Bob McClintock, Bill Zink and Tom Overholtzer. Don Blum is the offensive center and John Johnson does a rugged job at defensive end. Dick Hurter, who has capably relieved Kressley, plays safety on defense and Bob Freese also moved into the defensive secondary.

Charlie Melton and Andy Steele are the two West Chester backs who wrecked the Cubs last year and both are still spearheading another outstanding campaign for their squad.

Waresak and crew will have to stop this pair if the Cubs are to wind up the season with their fourth win.

Coatesville Looms as Dark Shadow On Trojans' Path to C-M Title

With the Ches-Mont league title at stake, the Pottstown High Trojans are trying their best to look no farther than Friday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock when they play Coatesville High.

On its record of eight straight losses, the Raiders would appear to have little to say about stopping the Trojans' pennant drive. But they will put eleven husky boys on the field and if they leave a few of their mistakes in the locker room they could send the Trojans back to Pottstown feeling mighty low.

Coach Heeb Meyers has been putting plenty of practice time into trying to improve his team's attack. A hard offensive scrimmage was conducted yesterday with a good defensive unit trying to halt the regulars.

Although Pottstown broke loose for three touchdowns against Bridgeport—something no other team has been about to do this season—it took a blocked kick and an interception deep in Dragon land to set the stage for two of the tallies.

Some of the Trojan's speedier backs like Howie Bedell or Carl Burns could make their coaches happy with a long touchdown run, something has been lacking from their offense all year.

After the loss to Norristown, Meyers made some important changes in his defense and since that time no team in the league has been able to gain more than 77 yards rushing against the Trojans. Several officials have commented to Meyers that he seems to be using the lightest defensive line in the league.

THAT IS probably true with lightweights like Flip Smoyer, Jim Porter, Earl Hunsicker and Bill Fisher as the defensive mainstays along with big Milt Wensel who has come into his own in recent games.

The linebacking forces of Joe Rettew, Al Bodulus, Tony Giangiacomo and Mac Shirey operate as a unit and pour into ball carriers in twos and threes. The entire defense is a happy blend of improved tackling, speed and an abundance of fight. Red Kerr is just as outstanding on defense as he is on offense. He comes up fast from the secondary and is one of the surest tacklers on the team.

Howie Bedell's greatest improvement this year has been on pass defense. He intercepted four passes against Bridgeport although one was nullified by a penalty. Two of his grabs were high altitude efforts.

And Bedell's running picked up again after a lag against Berwyn. He upped his average to 5.8 yards a carry and now has a net yardage gain of 741. Kerr had one of his best running days against the Porters and is now only a yard behind Clark Burns in the rushing department.

Jim Kirk completed two out of five passes on Saturday and now has an even .500 average on 10 completions in 20 tries. He had his first two interceptions charged against him and when Bedell's lone toss was intercepted it boosted the team's mark to five over the season.

Losers Fall Back

Irish Still Rated Tops; Terps Make Advance

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The race between Notre Dame and Maryland for the season's No. 1 rating in college football becomes closer as the other teams eliminate themselves from contention.

Those two teams, the only major powers still undefeated and untied this season, rounded up 135 of the 151 first place votes cast in the eighth weekly Associated Press ranking poll. And Maryland's position in the balloting continued to grow stronger as the Terrapins continued to win over increasingly strong opposition.

Notre Dame, an easy winner over North Carolina, remained on top of the list, where it has been all season, with 93 first place votes and a total of 1404 points on the usual basis of 10 for first place, nine for second, etc. But Maryland, which made well-regarded Mississippi look like another soft touch, moved within 60 points of the lead with 42 firsts and 1344 points.

This struggle may be resolved next Saturday when Notre Dame plays Iowa and Maryland encounters Alabama. By whipping Minnesota, the surprising Iowa team earned 20th place in the ratings. Alabama, a 13-6 winner over the Georgia Tech team that was rated fifth a week ago, just missed a spot in the first ten teams.

Georgia Tech was one of three teams which lost their high rankings of last week.

Bucceroni Fights Beshore Tonight In California Bout

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—Dan Bucceroni, who hopes to land a title match with heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, makes his Los Angeles debut tomorrow night and is heavily picked to use aging Freddie Beshore for a punching bag for the benefit of the local fans and a national television audience.

The match goes on the TV screens at 10 p. m. Pottstown time and at least $12,000 worth of tickets have been sold. The television sponsor bought 'em to be certain some one is in the Olympic auditorium.

Bucceroni, who is 28, stands 6 feet 3 and probably will weigh around 195, may find the 31-year-old Beshore a hard man to floor. Marciano, Joe Louis and Ezzard Charles tried to floor Freddie but failed.

BUCCERONI'S best known victims this year were Tommy Harrison and Jimmy Slade.

Beshore, after a long layoff, came back to defeat Abel Fernandez, gain a draw and lose a decision to Harry (Kid) Matthews. Beshore weighs about 190.

Tecia slipped from fifth to 12th. West Virginia, its 13-game winning streak ended by a loss to South Carolina, fell from eighth to 19th and Baylor, ranked ninth before it took a 37-7 shellacking from Houston, didn't get placed in the first 20 this week.

Illinois, still a candidate for the Big Ten championship and the Rose Bowl bid, remained in the top ten despite a 34-7 whipping from Wisconsin. From third place, The Illini went down to seventh.

THE OLD FAVORITES which took their losses earlier then went back to winning, turned up in the higher places in the general reshuffling of the rankings. Michigan State, last year's national champion, moved back to third with an impressive 1091 point total. Orange Bowl bound Oklahoma, clinching the big seven title, took over fourth with UCLA fifth.

Of these three, only UCLA appears to be in trouble Saturday.

The UCLA's encounter ninth-ranked Southern California in one of the games which will decide the Pacific Coast conference championship. Michigan State ends its season against Marquette and Oklahoma plays Nebraska. Other top ten pairings: Illinois-Northwestern, Wisconsin-Minnesota and Rice-Texas Christian. Texas is idle.

The top 10 (first place votes and team records in parentheses):

1. Notre Dame (9-0) 1404
 2. Maryland (4-0) (9-0) 1344
 3. Michigan State (3) (7-1) 1091
 4. Oklahoma (3) (8-1-1) 920
 5. UCLA (7-1) 808
 6. Texas (6-3) 348
 7. Illinois (6-1-1) 311
 8. Wisconsin (2) (6-2) 290
 9. Southern California (6-1-1) 201
 10. Rice (6-2) 183
- The second ten: 11. Alabama (1) 163; 12. Georgia Tech (1) 13; Kentucky (3) 130; 14. Auburn (1) 126; 15. Duke 117; 16. Stanford 106; 17. Texas Tech 81; 18. South Carolina 78; 19. West Virginia (1) 71; 20. Iowa (1) 71.
- Others receiving more than 10 points: Army, Tennessee, Baylor, SMU, Michigan (1), Cincinnati, Oklahoma A&M.

SENSATIONAL, ball-carrying of J. C. Caroline, Soph halfback of the University of Illinois team, has brought up that old question again—"Is he better than Red Grange?" Caroline, a 6-foot speedster from Columbia, S. C., gained more than 1400 yards in total offense in eight games, eclipsing the mark Grange set at Illinois in his Soph season of 1923. Caroline was an all-around star at Booker T. Washington High in Columbia where he won 12 letters in four sports. He was called "Tornado."

Alston Denies Dodgers Name Him Manager

OXFORD, Ohio, Nov. 17.—Walter Alston knocked down reports tonight he had been chosen as the new manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

"It can't be authentic because I haven't heard anything about it," the manager of Montreal in the International league said.

The New York Daily Mirror said Alston would be the new manager of the National league pennant winners.

"You know more about it than I," Alston told a reporter. "I haven't thought too much about the job and I'd have to talk to club officials."

THE MIRROR said in a story bylined by Ken Smith its information came from "a source close to the Ebbets field inner headquarters."

Alston is 42. He lives in Oxford, Ohio, and has been managing in the minors since 1945.

Dodger officials were not immediately available for comment. The Brooklyn manager's job has been vacant since mid-October when Charlie Dressen left after failing to get a contract for more than one year.

Joe Ujobai Holds Scoring Lead With 91 Points

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17.—Gettysburg's Joe Ujobai still holds a comfortable margin in the Pennsylvania State college football scoring derby, the weekly Associated Press survey showed today.

Ujobai scored 14 points, two touchdowns and a pair of extra points against Bucknell last Saturday to increase his total to 91—12 TDs and 19 conversions.

He has a 20 point lead over runnerup Fred Prender of West Chester who has finished his season, and a 25 point edge over Joe Scafuri of Thiel and Bill Rollins of Washington and Jefferson, both of whom ended their campaigning for the year with 66.

Jim Lavery of Scranton, with two games to play, has an outside chance of overtaking Ujobai.

Player	College	Tds	Xps	Fgs	Tp

A-Season completed.

WHAT HAPPENED in that Chicago fight is familiar by now to everyone interested—the fairly even struggle for about seven rounds, Bratton bouncing off the ropes in the eighth to run smack into a punch which left him woozy, and his endurance of unbelievable punishment the remainder of the fight to finish on his feet.

We were trying to recall other fights in which a man took such a lathering. There was the first Tony Zale-Rocky Graziano contest for one, with Zale, victim of the merciless battering, winning with one breath-taking short to the body. At least it took Graziano's breath.

There was the last Ray Robinson-Jake LaMotta fight, in which the stubborn, iron-chinned LaMotta remained upright until the referee could stand it no longer. LaMotta took even a more savage beating than Bratton, in that Robinson, a much sterner puncher than The Kead, stood off and took careful aim at Jake's unprotected chin before turning loose his barrage.

We didn't see the Barney Ross-Henry Armstrong fight, but from all reports Ross showed such resolution under sickening punishment that even Armstrong showed compassion.

THERE DOESN'T SEEM to be much left in the welterweight ranks for Gavilan now. He wants to be introduced, in the ring, to middleweight champion Bobo Olson. Everybody wants to meet Olson. Nice chap, apparently. Besides, his challengers don't believe he can fight a lick.

Gavilan probably would give Olson a good fight, at that, but we have our doubts he could beat him. Olson doesn't look like much in there, but it's very deceiving. He reminds us of Al Amecche, the Wisconsin backfield man. Amecche isn't much to look at either. He runs into the line high, he doesn't seem to have much style. But he just bullies his way forward, shedding tacklers as if they were confetti. All he does is beat you.

Gavilan wants to emulate Ray Robinson, who moved up to take the middleweight championship. The only trouble with that is that he isn't Robinson, who had everything. He was sheer class inside those ropes, and those who believe that Gavilan was good the other night should remember Robinson beat him twice.

We doubt very much that Bratton will want a return bout with Gavilan. He's met him three times now and the best he could get was one draw. He had alibis the first two times. This time there is no alibi. He lose easy, as they say.

Atlantic Premium

Atlantic research has developed a heavy-duty oil to fight "knock"

Atlantic Premium is a motor oil that cuts down the formation of carbon deposits which cause engines to "knock" or run "rough."

Atlantic Premium is an oil that gives noticeably quick starting when an engine is cold, and low consumption even on long drives at high speeds.

And it's a heavy-duty, high-detergent motor oil that gives maximum protection against rust and keeps engines clean.

Your Atlantic Dealer is now featuring Atlantic Premium at his station. Ask him about it for your next oil change and keep your engine running like new.

Losers Fall Back

Irish Still Rated Tops; Terps Make Advance

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (AP)—The race between Notre Dame and Maryland for the season's No. 1 rating in college football becomes closer as the other teams eliminate themselves from contention.

Those two teams, the only major powers still undefeated and untied this season, rounded up 135 of the 151 first place votes cast in the eighth weekly Associated Press ranking poll. And Maryland's position in the balloting continued to grow stronger as the Terrapins continued to win over increasingly strong opposition.

Notre Dame, an easy winner over North Carolina, remained on top of the list, where it has been all season, with 93 first place votes and a total of 1404 points on the usual basis of 10 for first place, nine for second, etc. But Maryland, which made well-regarded Mississippi look like another soft touch, moved within 60 points of the lead with 42 firsts and 1344 points.

This struggle may be resolved next Saturday when Notre Dame plays Iowa and Maryland encounters Alabama. By whipping Minnesota, the surprising Iowa team earned 20th place in the ratings. Alabama, a 13-6 winner over the Georgia Tech team that was rated fifth a week ago, just missed a spot in the first ten teams.

Georgia Tech was one of three teams which lost their high rankings of last week.

Bucceroni Fights Beshore Tonight In California Bowl

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17 (AP)—Dan Bucceroni, who hopes to land a title match with heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, makes his Los Angeles debut tomorrow night and is heavily picked to use aging Freddie Beshore for a punching bag for the benefit of the local fans and a national television audience.

The match goes on the TV screens at 10 p. m. Pottstown time and at least $12,000 worth of tickets have been sold. The television sponsor bought 'em to be certain some one is in the Olympic auditorium.

Bucceroni, who is 26, stands 6 feet 3 and probably will weigh around 195, may find the 31-year-old Beshore a hard man to floor. Marciano, Joe Louis and Ezzard Charles tried to floor Freddie but failed.

Bucceroni's best known victims this year were Tommy Harrison and Jimmy Slade.

Beshore, after a long layoff, came back to defeat Abel Fernandez, gain a draw and lose a decision to Harry (Kid) Matthews. Beshore weighs about 190.

Tecia slipped from fifth to 12th. West Virginia, its 13-game winning streak ended by a loss to South Carolina, fell from eight to 19th and Baylor, ranked ninth before it took a 37-7 shellacking from Houston, didn't get placed in the first 20 this week.

Illinois, still a candidate for the Big Ten championship and the Rose Bowl bid, remained in the top ten despite a 34-7 whipping from Wisconsin. From third place, The Illini went down to seventh.

THE OLD FAVORITES which took their losses earlier then went back to winning, turned up in the higher places in the general reshuffling of the rankings. Michigan State, last year's national champion, moved back to third with an impressive 1091 point total. Orange Bowl bound Oklahoma, clinching the big seven title, took over fourth with UCLA fifth.

Of these three, only UCLA appears to be in for trouble Saturday. The UCLAs encounter ninth-ranked Southern California in one of the games which will decide the Pacific Coast conference championship. Michigan State ends its season against Marquette and Oklahoma plays Nebraska. Other top ten pairings: Illinois-Northwestern, Wisconsin-Minnesota and Rice-Texas Christian. Texas is idle.

The top 10 (first place votes and team records in parentheses):

1. Notre Dame (93) (7-0)1404
 2. Maryland (42) (9-0)1344
 3. Michigan State (3) (7-1)1091
 4. Oklahoma (3) (6-1-1)920
 5. UCLA (7-1)808
 6. Texas (6-3)348
 7. Illinois (6-1-1)311
 8. Wisconsin (2) (6-2)290
 9. Southern California (6-1-1)201
 10. Rice (6-2)183
- The second ten: 11. Alabama (1) 163; 12. Georgia Tech 131; 13. Kentucky (3) 130; 14. Auburn (1) 126; 15. Duke 117; 16. Stanford 106; 17. Texas Tech 81; 18. South Carolina 78; 19. West Virginia (1) 74; 20. Iowa (1) 71.
- Others receiving more than 10 points: Army, Tennessee, Baylor, SMU, Michigan (1), Cincinnati, Oklahoma A&M.

SENSATIONAL, ball-carrying of J. C. Caroline, Soph halfback of the University of Illinois team, has brought up that old question again—"Is he better than Red Grange?" Caroline, a 6-foot speedster from Columbia, S. C., gained more than 1400 yards in total offense in eight games, eclipsing the mark Grange set at Illinois in his Soph season of 1923. Caroline was an all-around star at Booker T. Washington High in Columbia where he won 12 letters in four sports. He was called "Tornado."

Alston Denies Dodgers Name Him Manager

OXFORD, Ohio, Nov. 17 (AP)—Walter Alston knocked down reports tonight he had been chosen as the new manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

"It can't be authentic because I haven't heard anything about it," the manager of Montreal in the International league said.

The New York Daily Mirror said Alston would be the new manager of the National league pennant winners.

"You know more about it than I," Alston told a reporter. "I haven't thought too much about the job and I'd have to talk to club officials."

THE MIRROR said in a story bylined by Ken Smith its information came from "a source close to the Ebbets field inner headquarters."

Alston is 42. He lives in Oxford, Ohio, and has been managing in the minors since 1945.

Dodger officials were not immediately available for comment.

The Brooklyn manager's job has been vacant since mid-October when Charlie Dressen left after failing to get a contract for more than one year.

Bratton's Confidence Was as Strong as Chin Before Fight

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (AP)—That crunching sound means that, with no appetite whatsoever, we are eating the words which expressed our belief Johnny Bratton would defeat Kid Gavilan in their welterweight championship bout.

Frankly, we were the victim of a confidence man. We picked Bratton because he sold us on the idea he could beat anyone within a dozen pounds of his weight. He probably was half right. If the opponent was a dozen pounds lighter he could beat him.

WHAT HAPPENED in that Chicago fight is familiar by now to everyone interested—the fairly even struggle for about seven rounds, Bratton bouncing off the ropes in the eighth to run smack into a punch which left him woozy, and his endurance of unbelievable punishment the remainder of the fight to finish on his feet.

We were trying to recall other fights in which a man took such a lathering. There was the first Tony Zale-Rocky Graziano contest for one, with Zale, victim of the merciless battering, winning with one breath-taking short to the body. At least it took Graziano's breath.

There was the last Ray Robinson-Jake LaMotta fight, in which the stubborn, iron-chinned LaMotta remained upright until the referee could stand it no longer. LaMotta took even a more savage beating than Bratton, in that Robinson, a much sterner puncher than The Keed, stood off and took careful aim at Jake's unprotected chin before turning loose his barrage.

We didn't see the Barney Ross-Henry Armstrong fight, but from all reports Ross showed such resolution under sickening punishment that even Armstrong showed compassion.

We still believe that Bratton's confidence was unfeigned. He actually believed he could wip Gavilan and all his relatives. It was just a case of overconfidence, with practically the same result that might be expected to ensue if a man was sure he could leap a chasm and missed it by inches.

THERE DOESN'T SEEM to be much left in the welterweight ranks for Gavilan now. He wants to be introduced, in the ring, to middleweight champion Bobo Olson. Everybody wants to meet Olson. Nice chap, apparently. Besides, his challengers don't believe he can fight a lick.

Gavilan probably would give Olson a good fight, at that, but we have our doubts he could beat him. Olson doesn't look like much in there, but it's very deceiving. Public Will Hear Program Tuesday By Noted Musician

Pottstown will hear a carillon recital by a noted carillonneur and organist next Tuesday.

It will be given on the recently-dedicated carillon bells at Trinity Reformed church, Hanover and King street.

Dr. Alexander McCurdy, Philadelphia, is the carillonneur. He will present a combined organ recital and carillon recital in the church at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday night.

The senior choir of the church will sponsor the recital, which will be open to the public. An offering will be received at the door.

Dr. McCurdy is organist and musical director of Second Presbyterian church, Philadelphia, and head of the organ departments at Curtis Institute of Music (Philadelphia) and Westminster Choir school, Princeton, N. J.

Pottstown's Finest

Hope for the future lies in Pottstown's schools. The Mercury is publishing pictures of Pottstown's finest, the children in our schools. Every day a new room of school children will be shown here. Save the series, and enjoy them anew in future years.

They don't have a course in the subject at the St. Clair school kindergarten, so these youngsters, probably find picture-taking a trifle bewildering. A camera must look like a pretty complicated gadget when

Cihy and Jerry Thomas. Third row, David Jones, Carol Richards, Connie McCarthy, Diane Barto, Larry Spivak, Teddy Klebach, Charles Reifer and Susan Bondola. Fourth row, Mrs. Marion Glavis, teacher; Dennis Zipay, Kathryn White, Cora Young, Eugene Horchak, Barbara Edlinski, Joseph Spaar and Joseph Hermansky.

CARE OF WALL TO WALL CARPETING

To maintain the new appearance of carpeting, experience proves that spots should be removed as they appear rather than doing an over-all cleaning job once or twice each year.

There is available a foam cleaner that does not leave rings when removing spots since it contains no naphtha or solvents. The use of this foam when spots appear, preserves the new appearance and life of carpeting. This cleaner, known as Fina Foam, may be purchased at Block's, High and Charlotte Sts., Pottstown, Phone 3010.

Britain Votes to Continue Draft for Five Years

LONDON, Nov. 17 (AP) — The House of Commons voted 268-38 tonight to continue Britain's peacetime military draft for at least five years more. Most of the Labor opposition abstained on the vote.

The overwhelming approval came after Prime Minister Churchill warned the House that any change in the present 24-month conscription system might lead the Communist world to think NATO forces were "breaking up."

Six French Workmen Killed in Munitions Blast

STRASBOURG, France, Nov. 17 (AP)—Six workmen were killed today by a series of ammunition explosions which rocked this French Rhineland city and shattered windows over a wide area.

The explosions occurred at Fort Foch three miles northwest of Strasbourg. The blasts hurled blocks of stone and concrete from the 19th century hilltop fortress onto the little village of Niederhausbergen in the valley below.

100 TERRORISTS KILLED

NAIROBI, Kenya, Nov. 17 (AP)—A communiqué said today British security forces killed 102 Mau Mau terrorists in this British East African colony the past week. The Mau Mau is made up mostly of Kikuyu tribesmen who have vowed to drive the white men out of Kenya.

Would You Pay $1 To End STOMACH DISTRESS?

Every person who suffers can have for only One Dollar THREE ONE-DOLLAR Bottles of SYS-TONE For Stomach, Nerves and Energy.

There are no "ifs" or "ands" to this offer. It is simply to prove that here is a medicine that is helping many people who had NEVER BEEN really helped before by ANY medicine.

You will receive THREE $1 BOTTLES—not samples—for only One Dollar at the Bentz Drug Store. (Out-of-town readers mail coupon with $1 and we will ship Prepaid.) There are no strings attached. We make this offer because we believe those who are benefited will tell others about it.

WHAT SYS-TONE IS

More and more Science is turning BACK TO NATURE. Today's Wonder Drugs prove this. Penicillin is from Nature's mold growth. Even camphor is from a Natural tree, often 500 years old. The Sys-Tone Formula is a combination of Ten of Nature's Finest Herbs plus a dozen of Nature's Best Minerals and Vitamins. Contains No Alcohol, No Harsh Stimulants, No Habit-Forming Drugs—whatever!

STOMACH GAS

SYS-TONE will bring out gaseous impurity (frequently from the real cause all along of your gassy, upset stomach, acid sourness and stomach distress.

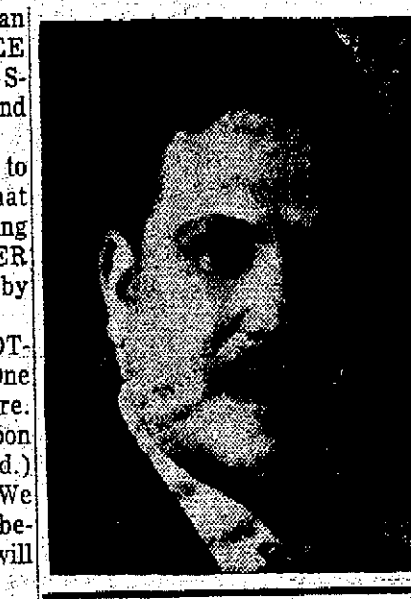

SYS-TONE will relieve indigestion, difficult breathing due to gassy stomach, dyspepsia and pain in chest due to stomach gas.

UPSET NERVES

SYS-TONE relieves one of the Causes of Nervousness, that is, lack of Vitamin B-1. When your system is low in Vitamin B-1 your nerves may suffer real disaster, with many sleepless nights, wretched feeling in the mornings, over-worry and getting excited easily. But Sys-Tone contains plenty of Vitamin B-1 to re-build weak, upset nerves so that you can enjoy night after night of sound, refreshing sleep.

FOR BLOOD

SYS-TONE will build Red Blood

N. J. SCHWARTZ, Ph.D., Ph.C., Noted Compounder and originator of SYS-TONE, who authorizes the Bentz Drug Store, Pottstown, to offer a $3.00 course of this amazing new medicine at the sensational price of $1 between now and Saturday closing hour. (Out-of-town readers see mailing address below.)

Cells and produce Red Coloring Matter in your blood. It will increase both the NUMBER and the COLOR of your Red Blood Cells. It will overcome sallowiness ("muddy" complexion) that is due to pale, thin blood, and will give you greater energy for a full day's work.

TRY IT FOR $1

Now, whether Sys-Tone will help you as it has thousands of others—whether it will end your suffering in a few days or a week—remains to be seen. But in light of what it has done for others it is surely a mistake not to try this $3.00 course for only $1.00, a fraction of its actual cost.

After the close of business at our stores Saturday the regular price will be restored. But between now and Saturday closing the coupon is worth $2.00. So if you swell with gas, feel nervous and rundown, have sleepless nights or suffer painful bloating, act AT ONCE.

Out-of-town readers may send $1 with coupon to Bentz Drug Store, High & Hanover Sts., Pottstown, Pa., and the full $3.00 course will be shipped Prepaid.

COUPON WORTH 2 DOLLARS
This coupon and only $1.00 Good For Three FULL SIZE Dollar Bottles of SYS-TONE Thurs., Fri. and Sat. (Out-of-town readers mail coupon as noted above.)

SYS-TONE will build Red Blood

N. J. SCHWARTZ, Ph.D., Ph.C., Noted Compounder and originator of SYS-TONE, who authorizes the Bentz Drug Store, Pottstown, to offer a $3.00 course of this amazing new medicine at the sensational price of $1 between now and Saturday closing hour. (Out-of-town readers see mailing address below.)

Cells and produce Red Coloring Matter in your blood. It will increase both the NUMBER and the COLOR of your Red Blood Cells. It will overcome sallowiness ("muddy" complexion) that is due to pale, thin blood, and will give you greater energy for a full day's work.

TRY IT FOR $1

Now, whether Sys-Tone will help you as it has thousands of others—whether it will end your suffering in a few days or a week—remains to be seen. But in light of what it has done for others it is surely a mistake not to try this $3.00 course for only $1.00, a fraction of its actual cost.

After the close of business at our stores Saturday the regular price will be restored. But between now and Saturday closing the coupon is worth $2.00. So if you swell with gas, feel nervous and rundown, have sleepless nights or suffer painful bloating, act AT ONCE.

Out-of-town readers may send $1 with coupon to Bentz Drug Store, High & Hanover Sts., Pottstown, Pa., and the full $3.00 course will be shipped Prepaid.

COUPON WORTH 2 DOLLARS

This coupon and only $1.00 Good For Three FULL SIZE Dollar Bottles of SYS-TONE Thurs., Fri. and Sat. (Out-of-town readers mail coupon as noted above.)
